by MILTON CANIFF

STEVE HAS DARKENED HIS HAIR AND BEARD TO POSE AS A COSSACK SOLDIER...

FOR A WHILE I THOUGHT YOU MIGHT BE WORKING SOME SORT OF BADGER GAME, BUT I SEE NOW THAT IT'S JUST ONE OF YOUR SECRET POLICE PRECAUTIONS...

MY CONTACT TOLD ME TO LOOK YOU UP IN THIS PORT... HAVING YOUR HUSBAND OSTENSIBLY COME TO HAUL YOU BACK HOME IS A TWIST... NO ONE WOULD SUSPECT HIM OF BEING THE BIG SHOT EXPERT ACTUALLY HERE TO TRY OUT THE BOX WE HAVE ON BOARD THE SHIP...

TRY OUT WHAT?

WE'RE READY FOR THE DEMONSTRATION —WE'LL HOLD THE SHIP BY SAYING THE CHINESE ARE DETAINING US FOR SOME IRREGULARITY IN OUR PAPERS! WE'LL BE WAITING FOR YOU TO COME ABOARD, SMRNSK!...

DEMONSTRATION OF WHAT, FOR PETE'S SAKE?

SO YOU REALLY ARE AN IMPORTANT MAN, SMRNSK! PERHAPS I SHOULDN'T HAVE LEFT YOU ALL THOSE YEARS AGO! WELL—ARE YOU GOING TO TELL YOUR WIFE ALL ABOUT IT?

WOULD THE WOODEN HORSE OF TROY TELL MATA HARI?

IF I DON'T DUCK THAT CHINESE PUPPET POLICE 'GUARD OF HONOR' AND MADAME LYNX, I'LL BE CAUGHT RIGHT IN THE OLD SQUEEZE PLAY...

WELL, I MUST GO AND SET UP THE BOX DEMONSTRATION

WAIT...

NOW THAT I KNOW I AM NOT REALLY ON THE SECRET POLICE BLACKLIST, THERE IS NO REASON FOR US TO CONTINUE TO SPEAK ENGLISH —IS THERE, DEAR?

Prince Valiant

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR

by Harold R Foster

Synopsis: PRINCE VALIANT RIDES TO HIS MEETING WITH JARL EGIL. HE DOES NOT FEEL THE FIERCE JOY OF COMBAT; FOR THIS DUEL IS A FOOLISH THING OF BAD TEMPER AND WOUNDED PRIDE.

EGIL IS THERE, WAITING. HUMILIATION AND DESPAIR HAVE MADE HIM A DEADLY ENEMY. FOR IF HE WINS HE WILL HAVE TO FLEE THE VENGEANCE OF THE KING.

ARMORED BUT UNARMED, THEY STAND BEFORE THE TABLE AND CHOOSE IN TURN THE THREE WEAPONS ALLOWED BY THE RULES.

EGIL SELECTS THE POWERFUL BUT CLUMSY LOCHABER, A MACE AND HIS SWORD. VAL TAKES THE WHIP-MACE, DAGGER AND A SWORD.

"YOUR SWORD, YOU FORGOT YOUR CHARMED SWORD!" CRIES ARF. BUT VAL SHAKES HIS HEAD. "ON THE BLADE IS THE INSCRIPTION: 'THE SINGING SWORD BEARS A CHARM FOR HIM WHO USES IT IN A GOOD CAUSE,' AND THIS," HE SAYS, "IS NOT A GOOD CAUSE!"

SO THEY MOUNT, SALUTE EACH OTHER, AND THE CONTEST BEGINS.

AT THE FIRST ONSLAUGHT VAL REALIZES HIS WEAKENED LEFT SIDE AND LIGHT SHIELD WILL NOT LONG WITHSTAND THE TERRIBLE BLOWS OF THE LOCHABER!

WITH SUPERB HORSEMANSHIP HE CROWDS HIS ENEMY SO THE LONG-HANDLED WEAPON IS USELESS.

WHETHER BY DESIGN OR BY ACCIDENT A MIGHTY STROKE KILLS VAL'S MOUNT AND THEY CRASH TO THE GROUND IN A HELPLESS TANGLE.

NEXT WEEK - The Miracle.

Bulletin Starts Search for Best Baby

The Edmonton Bulletin is going to find the best baby in Edmonton and in Northern Alberta.

All the cute and cuddly kings and queens of Edmonton and district homes will be sought in The Bulletin's first annual Best Baby contest.

The winners will be acclaimed Baby Edmonton and Baby Northern Alberta, but runners-up in the contest, too, will receive handsome prizes.

The Bulletin's decision to sponsor a Best Baby contest and to make it an annual event for proud parents of the carriage set follows the wide interest shown in this newspaper's daily baby feature, "Small Talk."

The loveable, laughing babies whose photographs appear daily under this caption have their counterparts in many Alberta homes, The Bulletin believes.

And this newspaper wants to find the very best of them all.

All babies born since May 22, 1948—those who are two years old or less when the Best Baby contest closes May 22, 1950—will be eligible to seek the coveted crown.

(Children of Bulletin employes, including their nieces or nephews, may not compete in the contest. Children of newspaper correspondents or members of their families are also barred from the competitions.)

Preliminary selection of winners will be made from photographs submitted by the baby's parents or friends, and the final winners will be determined when leading contenders for the Best Baby title make a personal appearance before competition judges.

There will be prizes for both Baby Edmonton and Baby Northern Alberta.

Winners in each contest will receive a large tinted photograph, presented by one of Alberta's large photographic studios, and similar prizes will go to the best girl baby, the best boy baby and the best set of twins competing in each division.

The best of another 36 contenders in the Northern Alberta and the Edmonton divisions will each receive a beautiful black-and-white photograph complete with folder.

Your own king of the nursery can compete in this unique contest.

Parents should obtain an official entry coupon from The Bulletin if they wish to enter their baby's photograph in the Baby Edmonton and Baby Northern Alberta contests.

This coupon should then be submitted to any photographer of the parent's selection, who will take a suitable photograph of the baby and deliver it to the Baby Contest Manager, Edmonton Bulletin.

Cost of photographs is to be paid by the parents, but all photographs will be returned when the contest ends.

Only black and white photographs will be accepted. Snapshots are not eligible. And please don't send in the frames.

Similar method of entry is to be used in the case of the Baby Northern Alberta contest.

During the period of the contest an entry form will appear daily in The Bulletin on page two. Parents should send this form to The Bulletin and will then receive an official entry coupon.

Upon presentation of the official entry coupon to any co-operating photographer, the photographer will, at the usual cost to the parents, take a suitable photograph of the baby competitor. The photograph will be mailed or delivered to The Bulletin by the photographer.

The contest opens today; it closes in just one month, and on June 10 the name of Edmonton's best baby and of Northern Alberta's best baby will be known.

New Artery to Help Traffic

WORK UNDERWAY for new grade at Grierson Hill road, from north end of Low Level bridge up to Jasper avenue and 95 street, will straighten and relieve steep climb near top. Upper portion is being filled with dirt from Macdonald hotel extension excavation, to give wider approach at top and to ease present steep grade. It will give fast, smooth artery from 105 street bridge to east end of Jasper avenue.

Noor Favored In Handicap

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 22. — (Up) — Calumet farm's Ponder; Charles S. Howard's great importation. Noor, and seven other crack thoroughbreds will go to the post today in the $50,000 Tanforan Handicap.

The Irish-bred Noor probably will be favored off his two thrilling victories over Calumet's Citation in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap and the $50,000 San Juan Capistrano handicap during the winter. This is Noor's first outing since then, but he has been training sharp.

However, many of the railbirds will string along with Ponder. The Calumet standard-bearer has had one victorious outing during the meeting and has been recording the best times of his life in training.

Portsmouth Close To Win For Second Year

LONDON, April 22—(Reuters)—Portsmouth took a stranglehold on leadership of the First Division in England's closest soccer race in years by edging Liverpool 2-1 today before 47,507 home fans.

The loss cost Liverpool their chance of bringing off the cup-and-league double. The Merseysiders play Arsenal next Saturday at Wembley in the cup final.

The Gunners also lost their final pre-cup tune-up, bowing 2-0 at Wolverhamptoe. Victory left the Wolves with an outside chance of preventing Portsmouth from winning the league championship for the second straight year.

6 LEADING TEAMS

Here's how the six leading teams stood after today's games: Ports-mouth 34 points, Wolverhampton 49, Blackpool, Sunderland, Liverpool, Manchester United 48 each.

Of those on the 48 mark, only Blackpool and Sunderland retain a mathematical chance at the championship.

At the other end of the First Division table, Charlton Athletic appeared to have escaped relegation by whipping Birmingham City 2-0. The result left Birmingham and Manchester City likeliest to perform next season in the Second Division.

PROMOTION RACE

In the promotion race in the Second Division, Sheffield United gained by beating Cardiff City, 2-1, while its nearest rivals, Sheffield Wednesday and Southampton Town, could only draw. Tottenham Hotspur, already assured of winning the Second Division, lost 2-1 to Grimsby Town.

Rangers won their 13th Scottish cup, and their third in succession, when they blanked East Fife 3-0 before close to 120,000 spectators in Glasgow's huge Hampden Park. A goal in the 50th second put the winners ahead and two second-half counters clinched the issue.

Ottawa Coach Goes To Western U. As Assistant

OTTAWA, April 22 — (CP) — Bill L'Heureux, Ottawa football mentor, has been appointed to the coaching staff of the University of Western Ontario.

A professor of physical education and grid coach at Technical High School for the last five years, L'Heureux will be assistant to Johnny Metras when the Mustangs start training next fall.

In addition, the native of Port Arthur, Ont., will be head coach of the Mustang hockey team.

285 Miles Of Road To Be Paved

All-Time Record Of Highway Work Planned by Alta.

Another 285 miles of highways in Alberta will be hard-surfaced this year under the government's all-time record public works program.

The announcement was made today by Hon. D. B. MacMillan, minister of public works. He said the program is part of a highway building scheme which will eventually give Alberta highways which are "second to none."

Besides 285 miles of main highways to be asphalt surfaced this year, 550 miles of new grading and gravelling will be undertaken.

Completion of the Edmonton-Fort Saskatchewan hard surfacing project, and of hard-surfacing Brenner underpass, which were started last year, are included in this year's program.

OTHER HIGHWAYS

Other highways which will be hard surfaced are: Edmonton to Nisku (10 miles); Peace River to Grimshaw (15 miles); Lacombe to Tees (18 miles); Wetaskiwin to Camrose (26 miles); Vermilion to Kitscoty (22 miles); Chipman Corner to Vegreville (27 miles); Sedgewick Corner to Siyal (18 miles); and Grande Prairie, to north of Wembley (16 miles).

Two miles of the Ponoka revision on highway No. 2 will be hard surfaced, as will five miles of the Peace River revision on Highway No. 2, and four miles of Highway No. 2 between Grande Prairie and the junction of highway No. 43.

Another 110 miles on highways 2 and 3 in southern Alberta will be hard surfaced.

In addition to the 285 miles of new hard surface, 150 miles of existing highways will receive hard surface treatment where required.

GRADING PROJECTS

Close to 500 miles of main and secondary highways will be constructed, to bring the government's grading project mileage to be completed this year to a total of more than 650 miles.

In Northern Alberta new graded roads are planned between Clyde and Perryvale (20 miles); Enilda and High Prairie (10 miles); Triangle and McLennan (25 miles); Saunders and Nordegg (15 miles); Rocky Mountain House to west of Ferrier (eight miles); Allario to Compeer (nine miles); Botha to Castor (29 miles); Alix west on highway 12 (four miles); Hoadley

Manitoba Reports First Flood Death

Residents Prepare To Meet Worse Conditions To Come

WINNIPEG, April 22.—(CP)—Manitoba's first flood death was reported today as residents buckled to preparations against expected stronger blows from spilling rivers and creeks through the southern spread of the province.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police said Roland Sicotte, a 41-year-old farmer, lost his life by drowning in the Ste. Elizabeth sector when he sought to cross a swollen Coulee in a boat with his son. The son, Albert, 14, managed to save himself when the boat turned over.

RCMP said the accident occurred early last night on Sicotte's farm, Ste. Elizabeth is about 40 miles south of here.

Water from the southern hills and the tributaries to the main drainage system in Southern Manitoba continued to recede, towns and villages reeling from its comparatively-gentle incursion were cleaning up the mess.

Now comes the main event—the savage Red River.

The Red was due to hit flood stage at Pembina, N.D., early today. Three miles away is the border town of Emerson, Man.

Emerson was hardest hit of all the southern towns when the run-off from the Pembina Hills and various creeks earlier this week

12 Starts In Memorial

NEW YORK, April 22 — (AP) — Top-ranking Derby candidates in the eastern United States clash today in the $400,000 added Wood Memorial at Jamaica. The race has assumed added importance with the defeat of Oil Capitol, winter book derby favorite, in the scarlet gate purse at Keeneland yesterday.

Twelve three-year-olds all but three eligible for the May 6 derby at Churchill Downs, were entered in Jamaica's 1 1-16 mile feature. Robert A. Kleberg's Middleground was expected to raise a slight favoritism over C. T. Chenery's Hill Prince.

Other derby nominees entered: H. P. Headley's Lotowhite, William Woodward's Lykos, Donald P. Ross' Green Song, Carolyn R. Stable's Hasty Counts, F. N. Phelps' Sturdy One, Alfred Vanderbilt's Next Move and G. D. Widener's Lights Up.

The three non-derby entries were Mrs. Andy Schultinger's Ferd, Frank Frankel's Noblest and Mrs. W. H. Labrot's Balkan.

Douks Fire 4 Buildings In Protest

KRESTOVA, B.C., April 22. — (CP)—Fire was Krestova's answer yesterday to a stern government warning that "the laws of Canada must be obeyed."

Despite a warning from Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer, the property toll—and the prison population—continued to mount. Nude, hymn-chanting members of the Sons of Freedom, offshoot of the orthodox Doukhobors, "expressed themselves" by burning four buildings — three homes and a communal kitchen.

The provincial police jail at Nelson, 25 miles east, bulged as the nude protesters, both men and women, were herded in by the truckload. Ten were arrested yesterday.

80 NOW IN JAIL

At the latest count 80 "Sons" were lodged in the jail and a wooden annex pressed into service. Fifty-six were arrested this month, the others are awaiting trial for previous outrages.

Since the burning began three days ago—fire is the "freedomites" symbol of protest—a total of 10 dwellings have been destroyed in this east Kootenay headquarters of the Doukhobor fanatics.

Krestova is 256 miles east of Vancouver. Its population is roughly 1,000. Exact figures are not available. Residents live in unsanitary frame or mud-plastered hovels.

SOVIET POWER PLAYS IN EUROPE SAID RUSE

WASHINGTON, April 22—(UP)—High U.S. officials were convinced today that Soviet power plays in Eastern Europe are designed to distract the West's attention from Russia's No. 1 target — control of Berlin.

They said they believe that Communist control of the German capital is still the Kremlin's main objective in the cold war.

While secretary of state Dean Acheson says he sees no danger of to revive the allied airlift.

A shooting war in the immediate future, some of his aides fear that an all-out Soviet drive for Berlin might produce incidents even more serious than the recent loss of a U.S. navy plane and its 10-man crew in a brush with Soviet fighters over the Baltic.

These officials said they believe there is danger that Russia may reinstate the blockade of Berlin, and perhaps seek to disrupt efforts

PRETTY 15-YEAR-OLD BLONDE GIRL MISSING

A worried father has asked city police to help find his pretty, blonde, 15-year-old daughter.

Blue-eyed Lydia Grenivich of St. Francis, Alta., has been missing since Tuesday afternoon, when friends left her at the Leduc bus depot.

She was heading for Alberta College in Edmonton, where she is a Grade X student.

Fears that she may have taken a lift in strange car instead of catching the bus, were expressed to police by her father, William Grenivich.

The missing girl was driven to Leduc from her home in St. Francis by family friends who left her there with the understanding she was to board the next bus to Edmonton.

College authorities and residents at 9712-111 street, where she was to have stayed while here, say that she failed to arrive.

The missing girl is five feet, four inches tall. Her blonde hair is worn short with bangs on the forehead.

When last seen she was wearing a wine coat, blue and white saddle shoes. She was carrying a light brown trench coat and a large grey suitcase.

Flood Waters Strike Manitoba

surged through the border country, 60 miles south of here.

Mopping-up operations were just under control when the Red rose three feet to send water coursing down the main street. Traffic was at a standstill ..

ABOVE LEVEL

Highway subways east and west of the town where impassable.

At Winnipeg and Selkirk, 25 miles north of here, the river also flexed its muscles. The gauge here read 19.4 feet at 10 p.m. last night—1.4 feet above flood stage and a half-foot above the reading that morning.

Nine miles north of Selkirk the rich farming lands of Breezy Point were under water as far as the eye could reach. Ice jammed the river, threatening to cause a back-up that might reach here.

RED CROSS READY

The Winnipeg area got its first taste yesterday when the normally-placid Seine, a tributary which joins the Red at St. Boniface, drove 20 families from their homes and left another 100 houses surrounded by water.

Barefooted Boy Scouts joined police and volunteers in keeping back the curious while residents shored up their threatened premises with sandbags.

Mindful of the lessons of 1948—when widespread damage mounted to millions of dollars—citizens of Emerson have combined for the battle. Emergency air service has been arranged if food stocks dwindle. Red Cross boats have been brought in. Furniture has been moved out of low-lying homes to the town hall.

Investment Boom Will Hit Alberta

$3.6 Billions Forecast For Spending In Canada

Special to the Bulletin

OTTAWA, April 22.—Canada's building boom, sweeping to new peaks this year, may bring capital investment spending in 1950 to a new high of $3,600,000,000, Trade Minister Howe forecast yesterday.

He predicted the general advance of five percent over last year's record investment of $3,400,000,000 in a statement made in the Commons while tabling two departmental documents, the outlook on investment and building materials supplies.

With building materials more plentiful than a year ago, Mr. Howe said a new upsurge in construction will mean the possible spending of $2,300,000,000 on building alone — 12 per cent higher than last year's $2,000,000,000 expenditures.

For the anxious house-seeker in Alberta there is assurance this year of $77.9 millions to be spent on helping to provide his home. This, though somewhat less than the 1949 (some $14 millions) is more than many other provinces can boast.

MORE SPENDING

On the other hand, utilities are to spend much more than in the past year, $89.6 millions as against $71.7 millions.

To aid in boosting the overall total to higher levels than in the previous year, also will come trade, finance and commercial services with $21.2 millions to be spent on new construction and machinery.

Topping all, however, will be direct government and institutional outlays on construction, maintenance and repairs, of $123.9 millions, exactly $30 millions more than in 1949.

Total investment in capital goods in Alberta during the current year is estimated to be by far the largest of the three prairie provinces, and to equal that of British Columbia. In sum, it is expected to be $493,000,000, exclusive of what other may be spent in oil drilling or exploration.

For comparative purposes, the figure may be set against $455,690,000 for 1949 and $387,000,000 for 1948.

NINE PER CENT UP

Broken down into various other classifications, the expenditures to be undertaken show $151.2 millions for primary industries and construction; manufacturing will take care of $5.5 millions; transportation equipment $2.2 millions. Petroleum and coal mines reairements are $3.1 millions, other manufacturing $8.5 millions.

In completing the estimate of the province's potential financial health for the year, the statisticians find it nine per cent better than in 1949.

Thus they put fears of recessions or depressions far into the background.

CANADIAN SCENE

But while the building boom may continue, spending on machinery and equipment in Canada is expected to come down to about $1,300,000,000—A decline of fire per cent from last year's $1,350,000,000.

The big shot in the investment arm is expected to come from public spending. However, private investment, covering expenditures on business enterprises, private institutions and housing are expected to be maintained at 1949 levels.

Last year $2,500,000,000 was poured in this phase of the capital investment program.

Public outlay on capital 'goods this year is estimated at $1,100,000,000—A 19-per-cent increase over last year's $930,000,000.

About half this amount said Mr. Howe, will come directly from federal, provincial and municipal governments and the balance from housing, institutions and other government enterprises.

Direct government spending is expected to amount to $535,000,000, up 21 per cent from 1949's $450,000,000.

Almost every category of economic endeavor in Canada is expected to share in investment prosperity, with the exception of agriculture, manufacturing and forestry.

NEW GRADING

About 120 miles of new grading will be completed in various sections of southern Alberta.

More than 600 miles of highway will receive first course gravel surfacing during the year, Mr. MacMillan said.

This improvement will be made to roads between Clyde and Perryvale, Enilda and High Prairie; Trianglo and McLennan, Rocky Mountain House to west of Ferrier; Saunders to Nordegg, Compeer to Altario; Botha to Castor; Alix west for four miles; Bluffton to Hoadley; Hoadley to Winfield; Winfield to junction of highway No. 19; Edmonton to Cooking Lake, Edson to Carrol Creek; Edson to Galloway; Swalwell to Huxley; Fort Kent to Glendon; Castor to Garden Plain.

Gibbons to Coronado, Leduc to the 5th meridian; Berton to the junction of Highway No. 19; Blue Ridge to Whitecourt; Boyle to Newbrook, Newbrook to Radway; Falher to Watino; Watino to Belloy, North Vermilion to Rusylvia; Rusylvia to Elk Point, Elk Point to St. Paul, Bentley west, and from the junction of highways 21 and 12 to Bashaw.

Of the $20,000,000 appropriation for roads, $11,730,000 will be spent for highway construction; $250,000 for ferries and $2,080,000 for bridges. Highway maintenance will cost $1,750,000.

District and local road grants to local improvement districts will total $1,400,000; grants to special areas $70,000 and to municipal districts $2,050,000, the minister said.

The all-time record $30,000,000 appropriation for public works approved at the recent legislative session will also provide for completion of most public buildings now under construction.

New construction of public buildings, equipment, and grants to the University of Alberta will take nearly $9,000,000 from the appropriation. Maintenance of existing government buildings will cost $1,381,000.

WORK PROCEEDING

Work will proceed on the Aberhart Memorial Sanatorium, the University hospital, Administration building, Beaver House, Nurses' home at the University of Alberta and the Land Titles Office in Edmonton.

Agriculture school will be completed at Fairview and new provincial buildings will be erected at Grande Prairie and Drumheller, Mr. MacMillan said.

Highway Work To Start Soon

Construction of the Alberta section of the Trans-Canada highway should begin shortly, an announcement yesterday by Hon. D. B. MacMillan, public works minister, indicates.

Prior to leaving last night for Ottawa, where he has been authorized to sign Trans-Canada highway agreements with the federal government in behalf of the province, Mr. MacMillan said.

"It is the intention of the Alberta government, as soon as the final agreement is signed, to commence whatever work is necessary at once."

Claxton Sees U.S. Strength Peace Guarantee

FORT BENNING, Ga., April 22—(AP)—Defence Minister Brooke Claxton of Canada said yesterday that United States military strength "is itself the greatest guarantee of peace."

Claxton made the statement following a military demonstration by members of the inter-service orientation course. He arrived aboard the plane of Defence Secretary Louis Johnson of the United States.

The Canadian defence minister watched quietly, but intently, throughout the day-long demonstration by the U.S. Army.

Alaska Road Closed Down By Weather

A 70-mile stretch of the main artery of the Alaska highway system has been closed to all traffic because of weather conditions. The stretch, paved last year, extends from Tok Junction to the Johnson River on the road to Fairbanks. The river is a short distance south of Halfway House.

Through traffic from the states will not be blocked, however, because road commission crews have opened Isabel Pass on the Richardson highway.

The detour means an extra 100 miles to get into the Golden Heart from the south. It is estimated that the road will probably be closed from 10 days to two weeks.

Islanders Enjoy Quiet Existence

MIAMI, Fla. — (UP) — Census takers seemed a little envious as they returned aboard a harbor patrol boat from counting the noses of "squatters" along the spoil banks and undeveloped islands of Biscayne Bay.

They found an even dozen of the modern-day beachcombers in this glittering-rich tourist resort.

"A couple work in the city; some just fish, and some don't seem to do anything," Robert L. Bryan, an enumerator, reported. "But they all seem to be living the life of Riley."

Edmonton Tastes First Quebec 'Sugaring-Off'

By Hugh Dempsey
Bulletin Staff Writer

Bygone days of the "habitant" were recalled last night, as French-Canadians held their first real "sugaring-off" party in Edmonton.

Almost 2,000 members and guests of the French-Canadian Association, Edmonton branch, gathered at the Sales Pavilion, bringing a touch of old Quebec to the west.

For the oldtimers, the evening meant a good get-together to talk about the good old days. But the younger generation was busy trying out the wonderful varieties of maple sugar confections.

SYRUP IMPORTED

First off, and most important, was 100 gallons of pure maple syrup, imported from Quebec and prepared by expert French-Canadian sugar-makers. Any youngster who felt like exploring further had his choice of maple sugar kisses all wrapped in cellophane, or sweet, crunchy maple sugar — the real stuff.

For the older folks, there was a rare Quebec delicacy, eggs boiled in maple sugar. And for lasting memories of a wonderful evening, gallon tins of Quebec maple sugar were available.

It used to be the custom, in the days of the "habitant," to pile into sleighs and drive into the forests where ample maple trees were running with sap. Working out from a little log house, called "le cabanne de sucre," they gathered the sap from surrounding trees and brought it in for boiling. The sap was then poured into sectional pans, where it went through the various stages from sap to sugar.

Last night's party had everything but the snow. And the chic young French-Canadian misses added a touch that old Quebec never knew.

The occasion was planned by Jean Marie Fontain, president of Edmonton branch of the association, assisted by Dr. L. P. Mouseau, general president of the French-Canadian Association.

Beef Consumption Off, Price Relief Foreseen

Mrs. Edmonton is beginning to tire of all-time high beef prices and, as a result, she may get relief next week.

Beef consumption is down and, as a result, slight decreases in prices are looked for next week, butchers said today.

"Beef sales are down between 15 and 20 per cent," said W. C. Bateman, leading city independent butcher. "The public is turning to other types of meat."

No major relief is foreseen until June when grass-fed cattle move to market, packers' representatives stated.

Price drops of one or two cents a pound are all that can be expected, in the near future, they said.

B.C. Police Find Three-Year-Old's Body In Auto

CRANBROOK, B.C., April 22 — (CP) — The body of three-year-old Madeline Joseph was discovered in an automobile Thursday night when police answered complaints of a noisy party in a shack near the city dump.

Police said the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Joseph of the Shuswap Indian reserve, were attending the party. The car was parked nearby.

An inquest has been ordered. Cause of death has not yet been determined, police said.

PM PUNS AS TRAIN SNORTS

LONDON, Ont., April 22 — (CP) — A blustering railway locomotive, hissing and snorting at the depot here, gave Prime Minister St. Laurent a momentary reminder of the House of Commons yesterday.

Posing for a photograph with the engineers taking him on his tour of western Ontario, the prime minister had difficulty making himself heard over the bustle of the locomotive.

"It sounds like many members of parliament, who work at full steam and make a lot of noise," panned the prime minister.

Israel Migration Deadline Is 1950

Countries Behind Iron Curtain Set Mark At This Year's End

Countries behind the Iron Curtain have made the end of 1950 the deadline for Jews immigrants to Israel.

In Edmonton, speaking on behalf of the United Israel Appeal in Canada, is Rabbi Seymour M. Zamborowsky, Montreal, who heads the Mizrachi Zionist organization.

Rabbi Zamborowsky says the Mizrachi believe that Palestine is destined to become a national Jewish homeland because of scriptural prophecy and not because of persecutions suffered by the Jews in other lands.

SPOKE LAST NIGHT

The rabbi spoke in the 95 street synagogue last night on the influence the state of Israel will have on Jewish life throughout the world.

He said 50,000 Jews left Yemen for Israel last year and between 100,000 and 125,000 must leave Iraq this year.

The Red-dominated governments of Romania and Hungary have set the end of 1950 as the closing date for Jewish emigration to Israel.

The United Israel Appeal fund to assist homeless Jews to return to Palestine has been set at $5,000,000 in Canada. In the U.S. it is $250,000,000.

Rabbi Zamborowsky will address other meetings of Edmonton Jewish groups over the week-end.

Banker's Widow Found Strangeld

PITTSTON, Pa., April 22—(UP)—Investigators sifted meagre evidence today for clues to the slayer of a wealthy 80-year-old widow, who was strangled and bludgeoned in the kitchen of the showplace home where she lived alone for 7 years.

State and local police were without a motive for the murder of Mrs. Margaret Mahon, widow of Hon. J. Mahon, a prominent lawyer, businessman and one-time president of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association.

Birthday At Malta

VALETTA, Malta, April 22 — (AFP) — Princess Elizabeth celebrated her 24th birthday yesterday in the company of her naval officer husband, Prince Philip, Maltese dignitaries ashore and the ships of the flag-bedecked fleet fired a 21-gun royal salute. It was a half holiday in this British Mediterranean naval base.

Norwegian Lodge Honors Officers

Colorful traditional ceremony marked the installation of officers of Solglyt Lodge No 143, Sons of Norway.

Installation ceremonies were held at the Masonic temple. Norwegian style supper was served.

The officers participating were Knut Sivertsen, president; S. G. Hallberg, vice-president; Einer Hallberg, secretary; Mattilde Mjaatvedt, assistant secretary; Mathias Myhre, financial secretary; Ingrid Sivertsen, treasurer; Elnat Overland, counselor; Minnie McDonald, social director; Anna Herstad, marshal; Anders Anderson, assistant marshal; Gustave Bruce, inner guard.

T. J. Rogness was elected historian and official auditor. Trustees elected were Andreas Mjaatvedt, Earl Berg and Ragnvale Dreithe.

Safety For Youngsters Whipper's Big Interest

By CECIL TIDEY GOLDSTICK

Whipper Willie Watson who has [illegible] fame as a wrestler in the United States, England and Canada, is even better-known in another field.

And that field is, of course, safety for children.

The genial founder of the Bulletin Whippets Safety Club, which has over 1,000 members already, has devoted a great deal of his time and energies, both here and in eastern Canada, with one aim: safety talks at schools.

Last week in addresses to various Edmonton schools, Whipper drove home to hundreds of pupils the vital importance of safety.

Now on a short wrestling tour, he returns to this city next week, and when he will again be heard at several local schools.

There is no doubt as to Whipper's success in the classes, especially if you have seen, as I have, how he makes the boys and girls hang on his every word when he gives his safety talks at schools.

Please enroll me in the Edmonton Bulletin "Whippers" Safety Club.

Treated Like a Child

The refusal of the Hon. C. D. Howe to institute a direct TCA route between Edmonton and Vancouver sounds more like a rebuke to a fractious child than a sober reply to a sound request from a responsible minister of the Crown.

After a thorough survey of traffic, flying conditions and every other possible factor, the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce petitioned for a direct route to Vancouver that would save from 30 minutes to an hour in flying time, reduce costs, give better passenger service and make lower fares possible.

The Chamber, being composed of intelligent men, was quite well aware that the institution of a direct route would involve the establishment of beacons and a new radio beam.

But the minister of trade and commerce comes back with an impatient reply that not only slaps Edmonton in the face, but reflects on the good sense of the Chamber's very reasonable request.

Mr. Howe explains, as though to an infant, that the change would cost money and that the TCA would not save enough to pay for this cost.

This is a most extraordinary position to take because it confuses operating with capital expenses.

No one expects that the cost of the new route could be met by current operating revenue. But everyone with any sense knows that the increased traffic would eventually pay for it. And that is the only way in which any capital expenditure is ever justified.

But Mr. Howe goes further.

He points out, in an objectionably paternalistic manner, that Edmonton has already received a "very considerable concession" in having had the transcontinental service put through here at all.

There was no "concession" about it whatever. The TCA put Edmonton on the main line, not as any favor to anybody, but because traffic warranted it. TCA officials said so at the time.

The Edmonton Chamber of Commerce is doing a first class job in gaining for Edmonton those services and that regard her new importance demands.

Fewer Accidents With Our Buses

Bus drivers on the Edmonton Transit System deserve the highest praise for chalking up the best safety record in Canada during 1949.

Motor bus accidents on the ETS were 4.5 per 100,000 miles of operation.

The next best record was 12, the Canadian average was 20 and some systems had as many as 30 accidents per every 100,000 miles.

This does not mean that Edmonton bus drivers win the safety record by any close margin, but that they are head and shoulders above drivers in any other city.

It is something to crow about because Edmonton has set itself a high standard in traffic safety.

Obviously the bus drivers are contributing to the maintenance of that standard in a substantial way.

There are frequent complaints about drivers who do this or that or fail to measure up to what the public expects of them.

Such complaints are common to every transit system and there are shortcomings in every organization.

But on the whole the drivers are doing an excellent job—and should be warmly commended for it.

'One Flock and One Shepherd'

No passage in Holy Scripture has evoked sharper controversy than those verses from the tenth chapter of St. John's Gospel where Christ speaks of Himself as the good shepherd.

Our Lord says:

"I am the good shepherd and know My sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth Me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd."

The substance and intent of these articles would be belied did we fail to emphasize that this clearly forecasts the Christianizing of the whole world.

And Christians are agreed upon this general meaning of it. But there is diversity of opinion upon the interpretation of the phrase, "one flock, and one shepherd."

Some hold that this means that all mankind must be brought within the fold of one communion of the Church. Others maintain that each Christian communion and denomination and sect has a legitimate place in Christ's Church, which is His Body, and that uniformity of [illegible] and worship is not necessary to salvation or even part of God's redemptive plan.

It would be manifestly improper to discuss such contentious matters here in a series of articles which are devoted, as far as possible, to an exposition of the basic principles of the Christian Faith.

Nor, so far as the average Christian is concerned, does the element of dissent in this passage need to becloud him as to his own immediate duties in response to Christ's charge.

What matters to the ordinary man is not whether the "other sheep" shall be brought within this communion or that communion, but that the "other sheep" within his immediate range shall be told something of Our Savior.

For the real enemies of Christ's Church, the "other sheep" that are farthest from the fold, are not the outright heathen of savage countries but the so-called semi-Christians, the humanists and the other pagans that walk our main streets and are our own neighbors.

The humans who are merely human and see no further than humanity, the hypocrites who attend churches for social advantage, the nature worshippers who say they are nearer God on the golf course than in His House, the lukewarm churchmen who give lip-service only, these are the enemies of Christ.

These are the "other sheep" whom He beseeches you to [illegible].

These are the "other sheep" that are the first business of the average and ordinary Christian.

Disgraceful Outbreaks

Editor, Bulletin — I read again of one of those disgraceful outbreaks in Quebec by a mob on innocent Protestants who had gathered for worship and edification from the Word of God. This is the third time Christians have been kidnapped in Quebec within a few months.

What did these folks do to deserve such treatment from this mob? Nothing.

I quote Roosevelt and his three freedoms: "freedom of speech, freedom of religion and freedom from want." There is no freedom in Quebec.

I fought for freedom in World War I.

Honesty in the use of names; as Shakespeare put it: "He who steals my good name," etc.

Now the two words embodied in my question are names. They may be good names, and the question is: Are you stealing them? The two names are: Socialism and Communism.

During the past five pears they have perhaps been used more frequently than any two other names in our language or any modern language. They have been used more often by newspaper writers, and by their echoes in radio stations, than by any other section of society, therefore it is to you I turn for a definition of these terms you use so lavishly.

Surely it is not a premature question! Nor would I be coming to you now, had I not first gone to those people who have long been describing themselves as "Socialists" and "Communists" and received in reply a lot of meaningless generalities.

Boxing Club

Editor, Bulletin — On behalf of the Edmonton Boys' Boxing Club I would like to thank you for the splendid contribution you made recently enabling a number of our boys to make the trip to Calgary for the Alberta Amateur Boxing Finals.

We didn't get the number of championships we would like to have, but all the boys put on a good show and there wasn't one who should have been left behind.

However, without your kind support we would never have been able to make the trip, so once again "thanks a million."

About Jay-Walkers

Editor, Bulletin—I think it is just about time that people started to do a little bit of reasoning in co-operation with the city police force, especially when it comes to jay-walking.

I wonder if most people realize just what a menace the jay-walker is, other than to himself. For example, take the case of some fool dashing from the curb into the path of a vehicle. The driver jams the brakes to avoid the jay-walker. The vehicle behind, not expecting a sudden stop in the middle of the block, crashes into the rear of the first car. Chances are the damage to the cars will exceed $100, plus the possibility of passengers putting their heads through the windshield. The probable result would be the jay-walker getting across the street safely, two or more passengers injured, plus two damaged cars.

My only hope, Mr. Jaywalker, is that you keep clear of me when I am driving, because I don't like this mid-block stopping.

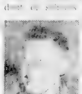
THE QUESTION: What would you like to do when you retire?

THE ANSWERS:

Al Bradshaw, technical advisor to provincial Industrial Development Board:

I'd like to work at just whatever I felt like working at, and for pleasure I'd like to fish. I don't mean just "fish." I mean "catch fish," like big salmon at the coast.

W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of [illegible] for Alberta:



If I could do exactly what I wanted when I retire, I would settle in some part of the province out of the wind belt—High River, maybe. I'd build a home and spend my time reading, and following my hobbies of woodwork [illegible] with the occasional [illegible].

William Tomyn, Social Credit MLA, Willingdon: Put me down for a lot of travelling.

I'd like to visit places all over the world. And then I'd like to come back to Alberta and spend the rest of my days at my hobby of collecting famous speeches and sayings.

Rev. J. A. Wingblade, Social Credit MLA, Wetaskiwin:

[illegible] I'd like to have a real [illegible] holiday [illegible] Sweden and then California. Then I would want to come back to Sunny Alberta [illegible] than 40 [illegible] wouldn't [illegible] church [illegible].

O. S. Longman, deputy minister of agriculture:

Volume Of Traffic Important Matter

Edmonton motor traffic is increasing steadily. It is common to find three solid lines of traffic moving in each direction along main streets. It is becoming increasingly necessary to provide added traffic routes to enable rush hour traffic to be handled adequately. But it is also possible to make better use of the facilities which do exist.

It doesn't matter how wide or useable a street may be. What matters is the volume of traffic that can pass along it in a given time. If you can double the amount of traffic which can get through an area in an hour you make that street twice as useful.

At each point where there are traffic lights there is a loss of about 10 per cent in effectiveness because the traffic does not move the moment the lights change. There is no need to 'jump' the green light, but if traffic starts moving the moment the green light appears it means that about 10 per cent more cars can get through before the next change. At present, too many drivers wait until the light changes and then begin changing gears. Such a crossing soon becomes a bottleneck with traffic piling up until the previous intersection is also disrupted. This slows the whole movement and reduces the efficiency of the road.

Another Time Waster

The same condition results from motorists who have not learned to keep in the proper lane and who still try to turn from the outside across traffic.

There is no need for speeding, but neither should traffic crawl along.

Another serious cause for highway inefficiency is the double parking and the single parking at street intersections. With this eliminated, each traffic lane could carry its share. Instead, the motorists who try using the outside lane are constantly finding themselves blocked by a parked truck or car. They must then pull over to the next lane and disrupt it. At corners, they must get into the 'through' lane instead of being able to remain in the outside lane used for right-hand turns.

Any night along Jasper avenue it is possible to see traffic snarled up and slowed because of double parking.

Deliveries Are Excuse

The excuse for double parking is that deliveries must be made. That is no excuse at all. If space is not provided for off-lane deliveries, then deliveries should not be made during rush hours.

Many cities prohibit all parking along certain main streets during rush hours. In other cities vehicles are not permitted to stop in front of business houses at all. Edmonton could surely eliminate double parking and thereby make the main streets one-third more efficient.

Double parking is not the only cause. There are many cases where traffic is seriously blocked. For example at 101 street and 100 avenue, heavy trucks used for unloading heavy equipment have been blocking at least half the roadway. At rush hours the traffic piles up for a block or more in either direction and often comes to a complete stand-still. At the Macdonald hotel there is another bottle-neck with traffic converging from three directions. At other points where streets are being excavated, traffic gets tangled. Those are three different types of blockage that are serious primarily because there is no direction provided to keep traffic moving.

Needs Someone On the Spot

Where vehicles in opposite directions must use the same part of the street it is essential that someone be on hand to hold one line back and allow the other through. With such traffic supervision it is possible to keep all lines moving and prevent any one line from blocking other streets.

As was pointed out last year in this column, it only requires the use of a traffic officer for a short time at rush hours to maintain order. The failure to provide such a brief control prolongs the congestion to three or four times the period necessary.

Edmonton is fortunate in having wide streets, yet one of the chief causes for Edmonton's growing traffic congestion is that those streets are not used effectively. A 10 to 30 per cent increase in the flow of traffic at the cost of a few more traffic officers would certainly be cheaper than the cost of building the extra highways needed to handle that additional amount of traffic.

THE VOICE OF ONE

Hunger-Plenty Contrast Today's Explosive Fact

By FRANK S. MORLEY

Today's most explosive fact is that our world is divided into three parts, the well-fed, those fed enough for working existance, and the starving under-fed. The United States with seven per cent of the world's population has half the world's manufacturing capacity and great surpluses of food. Economists tell us that the problem is "a dollar shortage"—a silly phrase. The problem with nations as with individuals is to earn enough to buy what they need.

MORLEY

To help people earn enough the British tax-payer last year voted 120 million pounds, interest free, for educational and health projects, soil conservation, and afforestation in Africa alone. In Tanganyika the British have a vast project of opening up 3 million acres of sparsely inhabited bush and building in that wilderness railways, a modern port, and new cities. Hydro-electric schemes are being developed in Northern and Southern Rhodesia and the Upper Nile.

In his inaugural speech of January, 1949, President Truman announced his intention to put at the disposal of the underdeveloped areas of the world the technical knowledge and the capital of the United States to restore such areas as the Euphrates and Tigris to their former glory and to develop the productiveness of potential undeveloped areas.

Since the war the United States has spent 25 billion dollars in foreign-aid programs, and recently Senator Brien McMahon proposed that 50 billion be spent in the next five years. Since that amount has been spent on the military program of the United States, it is not so staggering.

Sum Not Too Large

Benjamin Javits has proposed that the United States contribute one trillion dollars as half of a sum to be spent in an effort to raise the world's economy and standard of living over the next half century. Not an incredible sum, either, since we spent 2 trillion dollars in six years in World War 2.

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations is indeed the most hopeful enterprise in that body. In addition there are the Friends' Service Committee, the Near East Foundation, and Nelson Rockefeller's International Basic Economy Corporation.

The IBEC has gone into Brazil and Venezuela with huge farming projects to provide farm services and for crop and cattle experimentation. The difference that modern machinery can achieve is demonstrated in the fact that a typical European peasant harvesting with a craddle produces 100 bushels of grain from a year's work.

One man with a combine in North America produces 2,000 bushels.

American instruction in Mexico meant that while in 1941 Mexico imported 161,000 tons of corn, today she needs none. When Sears Roebuck started its Mexico City store 90 per cent of its merchandise came from the United States; today 80 per cent comes from Mexican sources.

These projects, therefore, can scarcely be libeled as "Yankee Imperialism." There may be "enlightened selfishness" in them, for, as W. E. Knox said, "You can't do business in a poorhouse," but there is a deep humanitarian urge and a desire for peace. Unless we can feed the world we can't save the world. Man doesn't live by bread alone, but he does live by bread.

Thus we have been given an unbelievable chance to win China. Forty million Chinese are starving. Their problem has been made almost insuperable by the growth of the population, the destruction of the topsoil by cultivation, the disappearance of the long grass and the devastation of forests, and by the corrosion of the rivers, for the Yellow River carries down an estimated annual load of two and a half billion tons of soil to the sea.

Russia has not the food to supply them, even if she had the necessary goodwill and humanitarian desire. Communist China is reliably reported as anxious to collaborate with us. We can win a victory with bread where we could never win with bullets.

I do not mean that we should use the food for bargaining. I mean that it is wiser to give hungry China food than to give ammunition to the discredited Nationalist government. China can be our ally and friend. The Christian way is the wiser way.

BARE START ALL PUBLIC WILL GET

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 22 — (AP) — The Fern Hill nudists are getting ready for a one-day open house — in the open, and, of course, in the nude.

Thomas Smith, on whose land the camp was established, announced that prospective members will be welcome to try nude sunbathing at the camp one day.

There will be no return invitations. After the try-out, visitors must sign up as members or turn their backs altogether on the altogether.

Speaking Ban Is Protested By Students

TORONTO, April 22 — (CP) — More than 1,000 high school students, peeved at their principal for putting a crimp in a school election campaign, staged a near-riotous demonstration outside west-end Harbord Collegiate yesterday.

Police were sent to maintain order as the students overflowed into the street in what they said was an effort to hold a "free, democratic meeting."

By mid-afternoon teachers were attempting to continue classes, but they had only a 50-per-cent attendance.

Chief gripe of the students was the action of Principal W. T. Graham in halting speeches at an election campaign meeting Thursday night. He stopped the speeches when the campaign threatened to develop into full-fledged vaudeville show.

BURLESQUE HUMOR

Two youths were halted when they began injecting jokes then had heard at a Toronto burlesque show, and a 16-year-old girl got the gong half way through a parody on the "Oklahoma" song, "I'm just a girl who can't say no."

The demonstration yesterday, punctuated by demands for the principal's resignation, was followed by an unscheduled assembly in the school at which Principal Graham told the students their outdoor meeting was "illegal."

His remarks were greeted with catcalls and boos, mixed with a few scattered yells of "let him speak."

The principal said he would be willing to meet a delegation and see what they wanted.

Two Provinces Renew Physical Fitness Deals

OTTAWA, April 22 — (BUP) — British Columbia and Nova Scotia have renewed their agreements with the federal government under the national physical fitness act, said Health Minister Paul Martin.

Under the act the federal government made grants to the provinces on a per capital basis up to $222,000 a year for the development of fitness and recreation programs, provided the provinces put up an equal amount.

British Columbia was entitled to $15,903 and Nova Scotia to $11,802 a year. Both provinces participated in the program since it began in 1943, Martin said.

Plague At Dieppe

OTTAWA, April 22 — (CP) — Canadian soldiers killed at Dieppe are to be honored by a commemorative plaque to be placed in Dieppe cathedral, defence headquarters announced Friday. More than 900 names will be engraved on the memorial. The plaque will serve to keep alive the memory of men who, for eight terrible hours on Aug. 19, 1942, fought one of the costliest battles of the war.

Social Services Limit Somewhere

Prime Minister St. Laurent Speaks In Lambton and Kent

By Brian O'Leary
Special to the Bulletin

WALLACEBURG, Ont., April 22.—(BUP)—An increase of existing social services would not ruin the nation, but the brakes had to be applied somewhere, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said last night.

He was speaking to a meeting of the local Rotary Club during a crowded week-end visit to Lambton and Kent counties. The trip was reminiscent of those he made almost exactly a year ago during the general election campaign.

"There are some prophets of gloom in our midst who predict that the expansion of social services will ruin the nation and make our people soft and unadventurous," the Prime Minister said. "That is a gloomy outlook that I do not share.

"I am sure you will agree, however, that there are limits to the share of our national income that we can devote to social services. Such services cannot be expanded indefinitely without counting the cost."

Social services were not free, he added. Government expenditures on such things as education, hospitals, old age pensions, family allowances and unemployment insurance all had to come out of the national production.

But as long as Canadians realized they could not have these services without paying for them, "I can not think there is any danger of national ruin by expanding them," he said.

Expenditures on social security, together with the costs of national defence to prevent another war, were the two main reasons why the costs of government were rising, Mr. St. Laurent said.

The Rotary dinner was the climax of a crowded day for the Prime Minister. He stopped briefly at Thamesville and Dresden earlier in the day. At the latter place, where citizens voted last year to ban negroes from restaurants, he spoke in general terms on the principles of democracy.

"We in Canada repudiate the claims of one group to dominate another," he said. "In this country, each group of the population fully recognizes the democratic rights and privileges of others."

He made no direct reference to the referendum on the colored question, and whites and negroes mixed freely in the crowd that heard him speak. But he did recall that it was at Dresden that the original Uncle Tom was buried.

B.C. Man Killed On Motorbike

TRAIL, B.C., April 22.—(BUP)—A British Columbia motorcyclist was killed instantly in an accident, provincial police reported at Trail yesterday.

Police identified the dead motorcyclist as Sam Pietin, 25, of Brisliant, B.C.

They said Pietin was killed instantly when his motorbike was in a head-on collision with a car driven by Frank Pantuso, of Trail. Collision occurred near Robson, B.C.

The crash sent parts of the motorcycle flying 100 yards from the scene of the accident.

Statistics Up

OTTAWA, April 22 — (CP) — More persons were born and more died last January than in the corresponding month a year ago. The Bureau of Statistics reported Friday that births during the month totalled 25,362, compared with 23,637 in January, 1949. Deaths totalled 9,695 against 8,870.

Child Pianists Prove Difficult To Adjudicate

It was extremely difficult Friday to choose top child piano players at the Alberta Music Festival.

Double competitions were held in two classes before Dr. C. S. Lang, London, Eng., music authority, could decide the winners.

He was ecstatic over the musical talent and ability shown.

"It is truly wonderful considering their young years," he repeated several times.

WETASKIWIN PAIR

In the contest among nine children, 11 years and younger, Colleen F. Sult, 10; Patsy Draayer, 11, both of Wetaskiwin, and Judith Shuler, 11, of Edmonton, were tied, in a second play-off, Patsy was declared the winner; Judith second and Colleen third, a single point separating each.

Two tied for first place in the piano competition for children 14 years of age and younger. They are Pierre Turgeon, 13, and Penny Wright, 14, both of Edmonton. In the play-off, Pierre edged out the girl by a single point.

Aileen Hartwig won the Bach class for pupils aged 16 and younger, with Margaret Prescott of Red Deer second.

FIVE CONTESTANTS

Terese Carriere won the piano class contested by five girls aged 15 and younger. Marlene Moseley was second.

There were 17 children, aged eight years and under, in a piano competition won by Dianne Ball of Wetaskiwin, with a one point margin over Evelyn Kemp, Calgary.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

THE MOURNER

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. These were words spoken by Christ on the mountain. They have been treasured through the centuries; but not always with complete insight into their meaning.

Christ did not mean merely the mourning of the bereaved for one who was loved and is dead. His words were intended also for those who have sympathy with the living; with the afflicted; the victims of injustice; the helpless and friendless.

They berspoke the bond of understanding and compassion that should bind all humanity together.

There is no man to whom the Beautitude is not addressed. No life is untouched by the sorrow of others, whether it is the tragedy that springs from war, sickness, poverty, or the bitter pangs of disappointment and frustration. Christ asks us not to mourn for ourselves alone, but for all to whom He is equally a Father.

He looks to each man to do what he himself would do were He to work in person again among the poor and needy.

The Words of the Mount are eternal and immutable. They encompass the neighbor next door and the neighbor 10,000 miles away. They are spoken to and for all men. They invoke faith and hope, love and charity.

To mourn is to acknowledge the universality of God's rule. It is to become a member in action of the family of God.

It is to share the laughter and tears of mankind as brothers and sisters share in the joys and tribulations of their parents' home.

It is to find comfort when there is only darkness in the world and the souls of men grow heavy with fear and dread of the future.

To the mourner, Christ puts forth His hand as a kindly master to a servant who returns tired but faithful from a mission well and nobly performed.

COME TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY

Lutheran Pastors Will Hold Spring Meet Here

Pastors of the Alberta Conference of the Canada District, affiliated with the American Lutheran Church, are meeting at Christ Lutheran Church, corner 93 street and 116 avenue, for their spring sessions.

Meetings are from Tuesday noon, April 25, through noon, April 27. Various items of importance are on the agenda for the three day gathering.

Tuesday evening the public will be treated to the showing of latest film releases of the National Lutheran Council, depicting aspects of the work done through Lutheran World Action. Showing begins at 8:00 p.m.

Wednesday evening the conference service is scheduled Together with this Worship Service Holy Communion will be celebrated. Speaker at this service will be the Rev. W. J. Rossbach, pastor of Christ Trinity Lutheran Church, Lethbridge.

The Confessional address will be given by the Rev. John Judt, Jr., pastor of the Schuler parish, north of Medicine Hat.

Evangelists Will Appear In City

Rev. Basinger, Wife To Be Heard At Several Churches

Rev. and Mrs. Iner Basinger, well known to Edmontonians and to the whole province, having travelled widely in Youth for Christ tours, will be back in the city after an absence of two years.

They have had very successful evangelistic campaigns and have taken part in a large number of YFC rallies in many states since leaving here. The Basingers come to Edmonton direct from a three week, city-wide interdenominational campaign in Hamilton, Ontario.

FIRST ENGAGEMENT

The Basingers first engagement in Edmonton will be at Central Baptist Church, April 26th, Shiloh Baptist on April 27, and at Beulah Tabernacle Young People's meeting on April 28th.

There will be a special prayer meeting at Bonnie Doon Baptist Church on Saturday, April 29, preceding the one-week campaign starting April 30th through May 14 with meetings each evening at 8 o'clock.

Special children's booster rallies will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays of both weeks, at 4:15.

Rev. and Mrs. Basinger will be heard in special musical selections and Mr. Basinger will give the message at the Youth For Christ rally May 6th.

Holiday Plan Group Will Hold Meets

A school for the training of leaders for conducting summer vacation schools will be held on three Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 8 o'clock, beginning next Thursday in Metropolitan church.

The school is sponsored by the Christian Education Committee of Edmonton Presbytery.

The Children's Work Secretary for the United Church of Canada, Miss Dorothy Young, will give leadership at the school next Thursday. There will be a box lunch supper.

On Thursday afternoon, beginning at 2:30, there will be a Sunday School rally for rural Sunday School teachers.

This will also be held at Metropolitan and Miss Young will be the speaker.

Christian Science

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (Psalms 27:1)

"Mortal man can never rise from the temporal debris of error, before he is sin, sickness, and death, until he learns that God is the only Life."—Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 2680. The Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" in all Christian Science churches is composed of readings like the following.

Children Learn

VIENNA.—The number of Protestant children receiving religious instruction in the Vienna public schools increased from 2,637 in 1945 to 10,632 in 1949, a report here disclosed. These figures do not include children attending schools sponsored by the Protestant churches.

United Anniversary

Twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the United Church will be observed by 20 Edmonton churches Tuesday, April 25, in a mass ceremony commencing at 7:30 p.m. at McDougall church.

Lethbridge Pastor

Rev. Gordon Allen of Lethbridge Pentecostal Tabernacle will be special speaker at Edmonton Pentecostal Tabernacle for the Canadian Northwest Bible Institute closing exercises Sunday, April 23rd, which is Bible School Sunday.

AND DOESN'T KNOW WHERE TO FIND HIM

ROME — An interview to be published in the Sunday, April 23, issue of Osservatore Romano, Vatican newspaper, quotes the mother of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, imprisoned Primate of Hungary, as saying that she knows nothing of her son's whereabouts or the condition of his health.

"God only knows where he is and how," she is reported to have told the interviewer. "I must keep silent, talking only to God who knows everything."

BACK IN city after two-year absence are Rev. and Mrs. Iner Basinger. They will appear at local churches starting April 26.

Schools Curbed

BERLIN.—All Evangelical nurses' training schools are to be subject to "new regulations" according to the Eastern Zone Ministry of Labor and Public Health. Under the new arrangements church circles said, the activities of the schools will be curbed about 25 per cent.

Race Equality Is Church Topic

July Meet at Toronto Will Have Over 150 Delegates

TORONTO, Ont. — (BUP) — Unified action on racial equality will be the theme when the central committee of the World Council of Churches meets here from July 5 to 15.

Representing 156 churches in 44 countries, council representatives will include world-famous church men like Pastor Martin Niemoeller of Germany, Rev. Elvind Berggrav of Oslo, Rev. Michio Kosaki of Japan and Dr. Rajah B. Manikam of India.

Chairman of the Central Committee will be Dr. George K. A. Bell, Bishop of Chichester (CQ), England, and Vice-Chairman will be Franklin C. Fry, president of the United Lutheran Church in America.

REPRESENTATIVES

Canadian representatives on the committee are Canon Robert A. Hilts of St. James Cathedral, Toronto, and Dr. Gordon A. Sisco, general secretary of the United Church.

Top-ranking church leadership from more than 18 countries were expected to attend the gathering. They plan united action for Protestant and Orthodox churches on racial equality with special reference to the Union of South Africa and problems of minority church rights in countries dominated by a single state-recognized religious group.

MP Stresses Urgent Need

OTTAWA, April 22. — (CP)— Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, VC (PC-Nanaimo), told the commons last night there is no more urgent need than the establishment of a special house committee on veterans affairs.

Speaking as the chamber opened study of veterans department estimates, he said the committee could help veterans minister Gregg to cut his administration costs.

A committee could go into a proposed extension of war veterans allowances and study the possibility of increasing the basic allowance.

It also could delve into the question, debated unsuccessfully earlier this week, of granting clear titles to First World War veterans who settled in Western Canada 30 years ago.

Veterans receiving pensions had a "haunting fear" that old war wounds would re-open. That was another problem warranting committee study.

Earlier this year, Mr. Gregg announced that veterans not qualified for such treatment could be treated in veterans affairs hospitals if they could pay for it.

Arctic Bishop Takes Over

WINNIPEG, April 22.—(CP)—Venerable Archdeacon Donald Benjamin Marsh, adept at handling a dog team and fluent in Eskimo, took command yesterday for the Anglican church as bishop of the Arctic.

His diocese, spanning 2,250,000 square miles, is regarded as the largest in the world of any denomination.

Choice of Archdeacon Marsh as successor to Rt. Rev. Al Fleming, who resigned last September because of ill health, was announced today at the synod of the ecclesiastical province of Rupert's Land.

Most Rev. L. R. Sherman, metropolitan archbishop of Rupert's Land, announced that Archdeacon Marsh had won a majority vote from both the upper and lower houses. He was chosen on the first vote after nominations which produced seven candidates for the high church post.

The synod immediately sent a message to all missionaries in the northern diocese announcing the appointment. Archbishop Sherman, in extending congratulations, remarked: "I know we can count on you to carry on the affairs of our church among the people of the Arctic."

Faster Than Ever For Queen Mary

NEW YORK, April 22—(AP)—The Queen Mary Friday completed her fastest post-war westbound voyage with a time of four days, 14 hours and 57 minutes, beating her record of last June by 51 minutes. April 19 she streamed 742 miles averaging 29.43 knots. Her average speed was 28.44 knots.

Her pre-war record of three days, 21 hours and 48 minutes at a speed of 30.99 is the world's fastest.

UNSTRING ROLL ORDERS CADI

TORONTO, April 22 — (BUP)—Mrs. Sarah Dunkewitz, 50, who said she had $1,000 in her purse, was fined yesterday for stealing a purse containing $10.

She pleaded not guilty and said she was only nervous and did not steal the bag.

"The only reason you were nervous is that you were caught!" commented Magistrate Frederick Gullen. "That's $20, so take the string off your roll and pay up."

Grain Firm Bill Approved

OTTAWA, April 22—(CP)—The commons last night gave second reading—approval in principle—to a bill authorizing a series of amendments to the charter of United Grain Growers Limited.

W. G. Weir (L.-Portage-Neepawa), chief government whip, said the co-operatively-owned company wished to increase its capital from $5,000,000 to $7,500,000.

The request for the capital increase resulted largely from the fact that the company recently acquired an additional 110 country elevators in Western Canada.

Provincial Government Unchanging On Grants

Edmonton's delegation Friday got nowhere in its bid to have the provincial government alter its stand on the public health grant question.

But the government did agree to vacate all presently occupied buildings in downtown Edmonton just as soon as the new administration building is ready to accommodate the offices. This will enable the city to get the buildings back on the tax roll.

Mayor Sid Parsons said these are the main results of yesterday's meeting between himself, Commissioner D. B. Menzies and Dr. G. M. Little, representing the city, and Premier E. C. Manning and Dr. W. W. Cross, representing the province.

"They would not agree to have health grants on a per capita basis," the mayor said.

"They said Calgary and Edmonton are in a better position to provide services than do smaller centres and municipalities, by reason of the government's expenditures in the larger cities."

BASIS OF NEED

Premier Manning and Dr. Cross insisted the per capita basis for distribution of federal grants was used only for distribution to the provinces, and that thereafter it should be on the basis of need.

Edmonton representatives maintained that a city of 150,000 should get back in health aid a fair portion of what it contributed in provincial and federal taxes.

"We'll just have to provide for expansion in our public health services out of the mill rate," said the mayor.

The premier assured the city representatives that space in the proposed land titles building will be adequate for the departments use without adding the third storey the city has suggested as necessary to conform to civic centre overall appearance.

"So, all told, we didn't get very far," said Mayor Parsons.

Short Memory Shortens Life

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., April 22—(AP)— Coal miner Demetrius Harbak, 27, lost his life because of a pair of work gloves last night.

As he left the Standard shaft mine he suddenly realized he'd forgotten his gloves. He told co-workers he would catch up with them in a minute and dashed back into the mine.

They found his body a short while later. He was crushed under a fall of slate from the mine roof. It was the exact spot where he'd been working all day.

Gladiolus Meeting

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP IS PAYING DIVIDENDS

VANCOUVER, B.C. — An experiment in Christian fellowship is working out satisfactorily in this city where the congregations of Fairview Baptist church and Chalmers United church are worshipping and working together.

The fellowship came about, when the Baptist body sold its church and proceeded with plans to build a new one. Soon after the foundation was laid the work was halted by a court injunction, and the Baptists found themselves homeless.

Chalmers church, through its minister, the Rev. Hartwell A. Watts, extended an invitation to take Baptists to worship together in its commodious building. The invitation was accepted.

Mr. Watts and the Rev. S. M. Hirtle, the Baptist pastor, share in the preaching and conduct the services.

The Sunday schools hold joint services, and the mid-week groups, various associations and church boards meet in Chalmers church.

Rev. S. M. Hirtle was formerly minister at Strathcona Baptist Church in Edmonton.

THINGS YOU NEVER KNEW ABOUT Your WATCH

Whether you know it or not, wrist watches are a relatively new invention, and a very handy gadget compared to the timepieces used by your ancestors. "It waxeth late . . . And "waxeth" was the proper word when King Alfred the Great of England introduced the wax candle as a timekeeper. That was way back in the year 903.

Today our watch repair department have highly technical trained experts, with precision equipment to keep your watch running accurately and steadily day in, day out. If your watch is not giving you the best in service, bring it to us today, and we will see that it is given our skilled and dependable attention.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Meet James Cagney, the star who never went Hollywood.

Jimmy is one of the most familiar stars in the film galaxy, but he is seldom seen around Hollywood. He never cavorts in night clubs, assumes none of the airs of a movie stai and cares not a hoot for publicity.

The Oscar winner is back at work before the cameras in "Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye." In this one he plays a Phy Beta Kappa killer—a college professor turned criminal.

What does he do when he isn't brandishing a gun for the screen?

"Raise chickens," he replied in an underworld tone.

NO MORE GOATS

"I used to raise goats," he added, "but they multiplied too fast. Now I just concentrate on chickens and the grains they eat.

"You don't read about me in the papers when I'm not working. That's because I don't go anywhere or do anything. When I finish a picture, I retire to my farm in New England. And I stay there until I have another picture to do."

Besides tending to his chickens on the farm, Jimmy dances. "I practice in the barn without music," he said.

He has long alternated between musicals and dramas, good guys and criminals. I asked which he preferred.

ONLY A JOB

"It's just a job to me," he answered. "The main thing I want is variety."

Cagney, ever serious about his job, was wearing his dancing shoes. He practices during his lunch hour for his next picture, which will be a musical.

"You have to keep it up," he said. "If you once let yourself get out of condition you can never regain what you've lost. I knew a circus performer who broke her arm and couldn't do her act for several months. Just those few months weakened her and she was never again able to match her former ability."

New Villain

Newest addition to the screen's corps of villains is Richard Rober, who drives Barbara Stanwyck to murder and is in turn killed in "Thelma Jordon." He's a former Broadway villain who came west for his health and now dies in the movies for a living.

Secretaries Approve

Dianna Lynn was presented a citation by the Hollywood Chapter of the National Secretaries' Association for her portrayal of a model secretary, Jane, in Hal Wallis' "My Friend Irma Goes West" and its predecessor, "My Friend Irma.

AP Correspondent In Sofia Cut Off

LONDON, April 22.—(AP)—Private advices Friday said the Associated Press news sources in Bulgaria have been cut off. No news has come from these sources in some time, and efforts to telephone Dimiter Mishev, Bulgarian citizen who has served as AP correspondent at Sofia, were unavailing.

The private advices, from a reliable source, were that the Bulgarian government had forced termination of the AP's news-gathering facilities at Sofia. No reason was given for the action.

Big Safety Drive Launched May 1

Objective Is Safety Sticker On Every Car, Truck In City

In an effort to have every motor vehicle operating on the streets of Edmonton in a safe condition by June 15, city police, May 1, will commence an intensified inspection of every car and truck not already identified as safe with one of the Official Safety Stickers, Chief Constable Reg. Jennings announced Saturday.

"No stone will be left unturned in our efforts this year to make sure every motor vehicle operating in this city is in a safe condition," Chief Jennings declared.

"Last year in the neighborhood of twenty lives were unnecessarily lost as the result of traffic accidents caused by faulty equipment. In the province of Alberta, and we want to see that this does not happen again," Chief Jennings explained.

ENTIRE PROVINCE INCLUDED

"Edmonton is not alone in this effort. In every section of Alberta Royal Canadian Mounted Police and city and town police will start investigating the safety features of cars and trucks not already checked at large road garages or service stations as part of the first nation-wide inspection campaign ever undertaken in Canada on a province-wide basis.

"Principle of the campaign is that of every SAFE vehicle is identified with one of the Official Safety Stickers as well as a simple matter for police bodies, with the remainder which would otherwise be a major problem. Today it was announced by Safety Council officials.

"Practically all garages and service stations in Edmonton are acting as official Testing Centres recognized for the purposes of the campaign by police and the Edmonton and Alberta Safety Councils.

"At these stations, motorists and truckers may have their brakes, lights, horns and rear-view mirrors checked free of charge, except for the 25 cents being charged for the stickers."

Non-College Men Design Telescope

MILWAUKEE — (UP) — Two men still in their twenties and without college educations head a firm here which is making the final design for the world's largest sun telescope.

Rav H. Dittmore, 28, and Robert Fromuth, 26, resident the contract to translate the rough sketches of scientists into the finished plans for the $150,000 apparatus.

The telescope is to be erected at the 11,500 foot level on Climax Mountain near Boulder, Col. It is to be part of the high altitude observatory of Harvard and Colorado Universities.

Dittmore received most of his electronics training in the Army Signal corps during the war. He was a staff sergeant. Fromuth is a machinist from Manitowoc.

"WE HOPE EVERY motor vehicle in Alberta will have been inspected and approved in a safe condition by the time this campaign is concluded," Howard Stutchbury, managing director of the Alberta Safety Council, declared today.

"EDMONTON CAN BE MADE one of the safest cities in Canada if all safe-car drivers will cooperate in our present safety drive," Brigadier J. C. Jefferson, CBE, president of Edmonton Safety Council, stated today.

GETS TESTS

New Plane Uses Birds' Flight Idea

LAS VEGAS—Man's age-old desire to fly like the birds may be realized in a new type of aircraft being developed by J. E. Caldwell, inventor.

Caldwell has completed preliminary tests of a flying machine built in the form of a "cyclogiro" which he believes solves the bird formula of flight.

To the "cyclogiro," a device recognized as an efficient aeronautical instrument by the Advisory Council of Aeronautics, Caldwell has added a "simple attachment" which he claims will duplicate the principle of gravity propulsion used by the birds' secret of flight.

The inventor explains that birds fly "simply by lifting their wings for initial impetus and then taking advantage of the force of gravity for gliding propulsion. If birds had to pull themselves along through the air as an airplane does, he points out, they could fly only short distances before becoming exhausted.

His new aircraft, Caldwell says, will imitate this method, lifting itself from the ground with power supplied by a jeep engine and continuing in flight by the proper use of gravitation. The revolutionary plane rose a foot off the ground during preliminary tests in Caldwell's hangar.

A war-time employee of the Howard Hughes Aircraft Co., the inventor became a centre of national attention in 1949 when some inventions he was developing were mistaken for "flying saucers."

Police Hold Man

SALT LAKE CITY, April 22—(AP)—A five-year-old kindergarten girl was bribed with gumdrops and raped Thursday. Today police held a man for questioning. The girl was picked up by a man in a car she was walking to school. A medical examination confirmed the girl had been raped.

Many Traffic Accidents Due To Vehicle Faults

On Monday, May 1, police in this community and throughout the Province of Alberta are scheduled to start an intensive compulsory inspection of the safety features of all motor vehicles being operated on the province's roads, streets and highways.

The vital need for such an overall inspection is known by the fact that 13 per cent of all traffic accidents are directly attributable to the failure or faulty condition of one or more of these safety features.

Your own car or truck, and the lives of yourself and your family, are at all times seriously threatened by the very existence of these unsafe machines on our streets and highways. As long as they exist and are allowed to continue in operation not one of us can reasonably say he is safe from their constant menace.

CAN BE DONE

They can be driven off the highways or forced into a safe condition, if you and all of us who are operating SAFE motor vehicles co-operate in the present all-out vehicle-safety campaign.

If every safe vehicle is identified with one of the official safety stickers, it will be a simple matter for Alberta police to apprehend and deal with the unsafe, dangerous vehicles.

All you have to do to have YOUR car or truck identified as SAFE for the purpose of this campaign is drive into any one of the Official Testing Centres, and obtain an Official Safety Sticker for the windshield after the safety features have been inspected and approved.

The small charge of 25 cents for the official Safety Sticker is used entirely to defray costs of this province-wide campaign, and for further important traffic safety work throughout the year. The inspection service at the Testing Centres, which includes a check of brakes, lights, horn and rear mirror is being provided free of charge by the co-operating garages and service stations as a contribution to the safety of the community.

All work of your local Safety Council in promoting the effectiveness of this campaign is being donated on a voluntary basis, with all funds, after deduction of general administrative and organizational costs, going to further continued safety work in your own community.

We take this opportunity to urge you, and the operators of all other SAFE vehicles, to help us and help the Police to drive the menace of the UNSAFE vehicle off the roads, streets and highways of this Province of Alberta, thus making it a safer and a happier place in which to drive or walk!

Your help is needed. Save the Police the Time and Trouble of Checking Your Safe Motor Car or Truck.

(Sgd) Your Safety Council.

1,000 A Year Play Output

LONDON. — (CP) — The Lord Chamberlain's office in St. James' Palace is bulging with so many scripts of plays from prolific authors that several thousand copies are to be moved to the British Museum for safekeeping there.

"We are getting about 1,000 scripts a year," said an official. "We have always kept copies as a national record but some years ago all scripts up to 1850 were moved to the British Museum to make room.

"Now our space is becoming limited again. We have so many scripts that the total is not known. Those submitted during the last 40 years alone about 70,000."

At one time these scripts dated back to the days of Shakespeare. Many disappeared before adequate storage provision was made. Those now in storage in the Museum date from 1821.

NOT EXPECTED

Slain Wife's $902 Estate Awaits Him

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal.(UP)—Ali Morley V. King has to do to get a $902.58 check is walk into the county treasurer's office and identify himself.

But Treasurer Shannon Horn doesn't think King, 49, will bother to call for the money, estate of the stocky chef's late wife.

His wife, the onetime Comtesse Christiana de Zoheb, was strangled here in July, 1947, and her body was stuffed into a trunk.

As prime suspect in the slaying, King has been sought in an international hunt that ranged as far as Paris and Mexico City. It also resulted in the muscular former gambler being named No. 2 man on the FBI's list of 10 most-wanted men.

UNDER PORCH

Mrs. King's body was discovered under the dining room porch of the hotel here where King operated the restaurant concession. She had been missing for 20 hours when a maid made the find.

The one-time noblewoman's colorful life led her to a half-dozen countries before she met King in Casablanca, Morocco, in 1925.

King was held briefly by authorities in New Orleans after a gambler named Williams was killed, but a coroner's jury found that Williams died accidently and murder charges were not pressed.

When he drove away from here in a sporty, two-toned auto, King was believed to have been carrying a large sum of money, probably at least $5,000 of the proceeds of the sale of the couple's home near Los Angeles.

However, if the suspect needs a little ready cash, Treasurer Horn has the check waiting for him. He is the only known heir of his dead wife. King will have to hurry, because the check will be sent to the California treasury July 31 if it still is unclaimed.

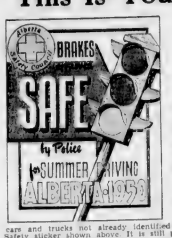
Ottawa Educator Home From Ethiopia

OTTAWA, April 22 — (CP) — Frank Patten, Ottawa educationist now director of education in Addis Ababa, flew home from Ethiopia yesterday on a brief visit to recruit teachers for the Ethiopian government.

Mr. Patten, on two years leave of absence from his job as business administrator of the Ottawa collegiate board, left Ethiopia Wednesday and arrived in town yesterday.

This Is Your Badge of Safety

Recognized by the Police when tests start on May 1



ONE week from Monday Police will start an intensive city-wide test of the safety features of all cars and trucks not already identified as SAFE with the Official Safety sticker shown above. It is still possible for all safe vehicles to obtain Safety Stickers at garages or service stations recognized by the Police Department as Official Testing Centres.

With every SAFE motor vehicle officially identified, it will be a simple matter for the Police to check the unsafe machines operating on the city's streets to the constant danger of drivers and pedestrians alike.

When obtaining your Safety Sticker, ask your Official Testing Centre for one of the informational booklets available to every possessor of a Sticker, which automatically confers Associate Membership in the Safety Council.

All-Out Campaign For Safety Set

First Of Its Kind In Alberta, Plan Gets Started May 1

For the first time in the history of any province in Canada, police, public and garages are joining in an all-out declaration of war on the unsafe vehicle, which last year killed no less than 20 persons in Alberta.

Police are co-operating by planning an intensified inspection of all cars and trucks failing to display the official safety stickers by May 1.

The public is co-operating by having all safe vehicles identified with one of the stickers the police are recommending. Garages and service stations are co-operating by making the tests of brakes, lights, horns and rear-view mirrors without any charge to the vehicle owners.

EVERY CAR, TRUCK

Present plans are to continue the campaign until every car and truck has been declared in a safe condition, after either a voluntary inspection in their own testing centre or a later compulsory check by the police, acting in unison in every section of Alberta.

It is expected the campaign will be successfully concluded by June 15.

Following are instructions issued to testing centres in connection with the inspections:

FREE INSPECTIONS

Official testing centres are expected to perform free inspections of brakes, lights, horns and rear-view mirrors in accordance with established practice, and the provisions of the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act of the Province.

It is most important that brakes be rigidly inspected and all other safety features checked to the extent of each testing centre's ability and facilities.

It is not necessary that special equipment or testing apparatus be employed, but it is most important that responsible persons in each testing centre be satisfied beyond any reasonable doubt as to the SAFE condition of the brakes, which must be capable of stopping the vehicle within 30 feet at 20-miles-an-hour on a level surface, free of loose material.

The face of the official safety sticker covers the safety of brakes specifically, and a testing centre may issue a sticker if the brakes are so approved as safe.

But testing centres are expected to inspect the other safety features mentioned on the forms accompanying each sticker, and should reserve the right to refuse the issuance of an official safety sticker if in their considered opinion other safety features of the vehicle might contribute to an accident.

With all features except brakes, lights, horns and rearview mirrors, which are specifically dealt with in the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act, some discretion must be exercised by the testing centre before refusing an official safety sticker, provided the brakes, lights, horns and rear-view mirrors are in safe and working condition.

EACH TEST RECORDED

Each official safety sticker is provided with an accompanying identically-numbered form in duplicate with space available for a report on each inspection. This must be filled out in each case by the testing centre, and must be signed by the owner or operator of the vehicle inspected, as well as by the testing centre.

The original must be retained by the testing centre until one month after the conclusion of the vehicle inspection campaign, on or about June 15.

The book containing carbon copies of the reports on each individual inspection must be mailed to Central Campaign Headquarters as soon as each book has been completed.

It is important that testing centres fill out these forms properly and fully in each case so central campaign headquarters can be equipped with full information on every inspection made.

This information, if complete and accurate enough, may be used as the basis for detailed analysis of the campaign in each locality, and throughout the province generally. It will provide complete information about each inspection.

EXPLANATORY LEAFLETS

Testing centres are being provided with informative leaflets for motorists interested in further information about the campaign.

In a closing statement to the garages the Safety Council had this to say: "The Alberta Safety Council wishes to impress upon all co-operating garages and service stations the importance of the responsibility they have assumed in agreeing to inspect and approve the Province's motor vehicles. If the testing centres measure up to this responsibility, Alberta can be made immeasurably safer, and these inspections can become an annual, or semi-annual program.

"The eyes of all Canada are on this Alberta campaign. Let us all do our part, sincerely and well, to make it the outstanding success it should be, and prove that free enterprise can measure up to such social responsibilities, willingly and voluntarily."

More Trumpeters

DRUMHELLER, April 22.—Hans Boe, who farms near Wayne, reported yesterday morning that a flock of what he believed were trumpeter swans have been feeding on a slough a quarter of a mile from his home for the past 10 days.

Recently officially it was estimated that less than 100 trumpeter swans existed.

Safety Badge Of Campaign Striking One

A reproduction in black and white of the striking safety badge being issued to every motor vehicle in Alberta which has been approved in a safe condition by official testing centres working with the police and the organized safety councils of Alberta in the 1950 spring campaign to make this province a safer place in which to drive or walk is seen here.

Wording on the back of the sticker is as follows:

"This is to certify that the owner or operator of the motor vehicle for which this Official Safety Sticker has been issued is a fully-qualified Associate Member of the Safety Council in this area who has co-operated in the aims of the organized Safety Councils of Alberta by having the safety features of this vehicle inspected and approved SAFE by one of the Official Testing Centres recognized by Police throughout the Province, and has contributed the sum of 25c (twenty-five cents) toward helping to make Alberta streets and highways safer."

Sound Laws Are Aim Of Safety Group

Supported by the Alberta provincial government, the Safety Council is pledged to an aggressive, year-round program that includes the following points:

1. To work for the development of sound measures of traffic control and give support to the authorities in enforcing them.

2. To strive for enlightened public opinion behind the observance of sane, sound traffic laws and regulations.

3. To fight against harmful, trivial or unworkable legislation, which may be against the best interests of those who use the province's streets and highways.

4. To press for the application of those techniques of traffic accident prevention that have proved effective in other communities.

5. To assemble and supply information, literature and films to all Safety Councils affiliated with the Alberta Safety Council so that safety efforts throughout the Province may be best co-ordinated.

CAMPAIGNS FOR 1950

1. Motor Vehicle Inspection.
2. Traffic Law Observance and Road Courtesy.
3. Pedestrian Education.
4. Drunken Driver Control.

Drive Goals Told Briefly In Leaflet

Alberta's first province-wide vehicle inspection campaign is being explained to the public in a small leaflet issued to all official testing centres officials of the campaign are set out as follows:

Your car or truck is recognized as safe by police, other drivers and pedestrians, wherever you go throughout the Province of Alberta.

Your display of the Official Safety Sticker enables police to check all other vehicles operating on Alberta roads, streets and highways.

You become a fully-qualified Associate Member of the Alberta Safety Council, a public body with branches in the principal towns and cities of Alberta, all dedicated to improving safety conditions.

Your 25 cent purchase of an Official Safety Sticker makes this large-scale vehicle inspection campaign possible, and enables the Safety Council in you community to carry on a year-round safety program.

Your co-operation, and careful, courteous driving at all times helps to reduce accidents, and causes other drivers to react favorably to the same end.

Thieves Enter Leduc Garages

LEDUC April 22—Two garages were broken into in Leduc early yesterday morning.

From the A. Armstrong garage $60 was taken but only a small amount of cash was removed from the Leduc Motors.

There has been a series of breakins in the area recently.

NEEDED: A STRONG EBWC

What factor necessary to the success of prizefight promoting is almost completely lacking locally?

You guessed it: A strong Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling commission.

This thought occurred to the boys on the boxing beat last night when it was discovered the EBWC hadn't taken any action on the recent Benny Geary-Hal Robbins bout.

Earlier, the commission had pledged itself to meet within 24 hours to review the decision. As is known by one and all, Robbins was awarded a technical knockout in the sixth round when Geary was unable to continue.

Geary, an aging little Negro from Wildwood, was incapacitated by a series of low blows. That some of Robbins' punches were low was recognized by referee Johnny Smith. He gave three of the five completed rounds to Geary because Benny had been tagged below the belt.

SMITH SAW 3

That means Smith saw Robbins throw at least three low blows. And the EBWC has, or should have, a rule which states that repeated fouling shall lead to disqualification of the errant boxer.

But Robbins was not disqualified. And later EBWC chairman Dr. Lee Dodds said he felt that Smith's decision would stand.

It is admitted here that the decision should be thrown out, that the EBWC members will be guilty of a flagrant breach of their own regulations if it isn't.

It is as plain as the dust on Edmonton's streets, too, that the EBWC isn't meeting with any semblance of alacrity on the matter.

And, according to Dr. Dodds, they aren't going to meet. They are going to talk the whole thing over via telephone.

Very cosy. Also a very shoddy manner of governing prizefight affairs.

NO PARALLEL HERE

It has been suggested that the recent Lew Jenkins-Beau Jack scrap in Washington is a direct parallel to the Lavigne-Robbins schottische. Jack won on a TKO when Jenkins was unable to continue after absorbing a lethal shot in the groin.

But the Beau fouled Jenkins only once—in the fifth round. Had Jack been repeatedly guilty of foul tactics—as Robbins was—he doubtless would have been disqualified.

★ ★ ★

A lot of people whose judgment I respect think that this most recent blunder on the part of the EBWC is the biggest in a long series of miscues.

I believe they are right.

"SO THIS big defenceman . . ." recounts Chicago Black Hawks' Doug Bentley, centre, in conversation with blueline performer Flyers' Bill (Humphrey) Pettinger, left, and winger Hassie Young of world champion Edmonton Mercurys. Bentley was outstanding at Gardens last night in EAC all-star tilt.

Doug Bentley Highlights Annual EAC Puck Show

With Chicago Black Hawks' Doug Bentley cast in the role of leading man, annual EAC all-star hockey exhibition was presented before upwards of 4,000 at the Gardens last night.

Bentley scored one goal, assisted in a second while generally sparking Dan Carrigan's Roemers to a 6-5 triumph over Jimmy Graham's Ramblers.

LOTS OF CLASS

Despite the fact that he finished the gruelling National Hockey league schedule somewhat below par physically ("I got banged over the head a couple of times"), the Hawk star treated the puck following to a classy display of skating and stickhandling.

Hassie Young, a pair, Elmer Krelier, Bill Pettinger and Hugh Currie, Buffalo Bisons, were the other marksmen for the winners.

George Agar, one-time EAC ace now with Minneapolis Millers of the U.S. loop, paced the defeated Ramblers in the scoring column, Agar twice hit the strings behind Ray Frederick.

Balance of the Ramblers' counters fell to Bob (Bushy) Jackson, Minneapolis, Andy Cloverdale and Johnny Chad, Providence.

There was little to choose between the teams at any stage of the wide-open contest.

RAMBLERS LED 2-0

In less than six minutes of play Chad and Jackson staked Ramblers two-goal-lead, but Graham's men couldn't stand prosperity.

Currie, a well-set-up looking defenceman, scored what proved to be the winning goal at 6:45 of the third frame. A long screened shot got away on Bentley.

Innumerable prizes were distributed to the competing athletes as the game went its way, such things as the first save, first goal, first penalty and so on, winning awards.

Game wound up in some confusion around the 15-minute mark of the third period. To start, referee Riley Mullen traded his whistle for burly Harvey Young's stick and proceeded to prove he still knows a few of the wrinkles.

And finally both coaches opened wide the doors of the players' penalty box. This meant some 20 players on the ice at one time.

The klaxon broke it up.

LINEUPS

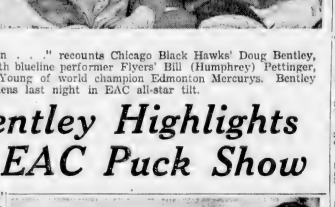
Ramblers: D. Bentley, Lane and Pat Young; Lavoie, Kolpack and Wilson; Chad, Agar, Jackson, Cloverdale, Allen, Anderson, Evans (Anderson) 10:34; Pendley.

Roamers: Frederick; MacPherson and McAvoy; Labossiere, Mackell and Bentley; Krelier, Bentley and Hucker; Pettinger, Young and Currie (Smithers) 6:45; Pendley-Wright.

Referees: Van Mook and Riley Mullen.

SUMMARY

First Period: Ramblers, Chad (Agar) 2:00.



"GOOD BOY," says George Agar, as he pats head of Johnny Chad, Providence Reds, most gentlemanly player award winner in AHL. Taking it all in is Minneapolis Miller (and teammate of Agar's) Bob 'Bushy' Jackson. Trio got together at last night's annual EAC all-star game.

Harper Foursome In Golf Blow-Up

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., April 22.—(AP)—One of the biggest blowups in golf history yesterday gave Australian-born Jim Ferrier's quartet of top-ranking professional stars the $800 team match championship in the third annual Civalier Specialist golf tournament.

Ferrier's team included another Australian-born golfer from Down Under, Norman Von Nida of Sydney; Ed Furgol of Royal Oak, Mich., and Jim Turnesa of Briarcliffe, N.Y. It had a best ball score of 67, two under par.

This effort was enough to win. But none would have given a wooden tee for the Ferrier outfit's chance by the time the four teams had moved away from the 11th hole.

Then the combination, capitalized by Chandler Harper, of Portsmouth, Va., was leading its nearest rival foursome by four strokes.

Harper had Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., doing his driving. Handling the long and medium irons was skip Alexander, of Lexington, N.C. Lanky Dave Douglas of Wilmington, Del., was the team's trouble-shooter.

The Harper team, however, lost all its advantage in the next three holes and finished a stroke behind the winners, with 66. The team of Jerry Barber of Philadelphia, Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N.C., Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, and Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., also shot a 66.

Moosemen Win Bowling

The Jasper Bowling Alleys' annual tournament concluded last night with Moose Lodge winning the men's team event. Moosehead had a total of 2902 pins, with N. Gerrell, G. Lefeuvre, H. Lefeuvre, Sweeney and Spatbo being responsible for that score.

North West Air Command clinched mixed event with 2868. RNWAC bowlers were: H. Garves, Hazel Smith, Fred Smith, Kay McLeod and Mary Morgan.

Another event winners were M. [illegible] Moose, G. Lefeuvre, G. Gerrell, G. Mooney, H. Lefeuvre and H. Watson formed the winning team.

Cheer Mercurys

Members of Edmonton Mercurys, recent winners of the world amateur hockey tourney, held in London, were introduced to the crowd previous to the start of last night's EAC all-star game at the Gardens.

The Mercurys received a rousing reception.

SUGAR RAY CRUSHES CANADIAN

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—Welterweight champion Ray Robinson, of New York, stopped Cliff Beckett of Canada last night in the third round. Their non-title bout was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Robinson floored Beckett for a count of nine in the second round. Sugar Ray finished the job in the third with left and right jabs that turned Beckett's face into a bloody mess.

Robinson dropped his man with a crashing right to the jaw. Beckett got up at nine, but referee Mutt Schartz took one look at Beckett and stopped the fight.

Marotti-James On St. John's Card

Al Marotti and Stan James are room-mates. But that won't prevent the pair from exchanging blows tonight on a St. John's College boxing card.

The pair will square off in an exhibition bout to headline the show which will be presented in the basement of St. Joachim's Church.

Father Duhaime, St. John's sports instructor, announced last night that a 15-bout card has been arranged, with boys from Alberta, B.C., Saskatchewan and eastern Canada taking part.

Local promoter Jack Berry will referee most of the bouts.

Regina Pats Take West Junior Title

REGINA, April 22.—(CP)—Paul Masnick's second-period goal last night gave Regina Pats a 1-0 win over Port Arthur Bruins and the Western berth in the Memorial cup hockey finals.

Pats won the series four games to one. They now meet the winner of the Guelph Biltmores-Montreal Canadiens Eastern final.

After the game, Fred Wilson, Saskatchewan trustee of the Hick Abbott cup, presented the trophy, emblematic of western junior hockey supremacy, to captain Morley MacNeill in a centre-ice ceremony.

McGOWAN MADE PLAY

Only score of the tense battle came late in the second frame when Masnick, Regina's high-scoring pivot, snapped a low drive from 12 feet out through goalie Paul Morin's legs. Defenceman Jim McGowan passed to give him the opening.

Port Arthur made a fight of it down to the end.

There were some taut moments

In the late stages as Bruins went all out for the equalizer. With 55 seconds to go, MacNeill was penalized for tripping Robbie Wrightsell at the goalmouth.

Bruins' coach Leo Barbini yanked Morin in favor of a sixth attacker, but Pats held out.

2ND WHITEWASH JOB

Regina goalie Bob Tyler, a native of Matlock, Man., got his second shutout of the series. He blanked Bruins 4-0 Monday at Port Arthur.

Regina outshot Bruins 28-19 on the night's play.

The triumph climaxed an amazing march through the western interprovincial playoffs by the young Reginans, seven of whom are still of juvenile age.

Pats, coached by former National Hockey league star Murray Armstrong, are expected to leave for the East Monday.

Local Wrestlers To South Meet

Edmonton public school wrestlers are going to make a big for provincial honors in the tournament to be held in Calgary April 28.

In charge of the group, scheduled to leave April 27, is Phillip Brown. Likely to make the journey are brothers Alan and Larry Shelton, Malcolm MacGregor, Keith Jirsch and Ed MacGosham.

Allan Shelton, a grade seven student at Spruce Avenue will be in the 85 pound division, while Larry will enter the 115 pound class.

Both have won the 'outstanding wrestling award in the Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling championships.

MacGregor will fight in the 107 pound (novice) class and Jirsch in the 125 pound.

1ST CLASS, OR ELSE

Marlboros Nix Tourist Tickets

MONTREAL, April 22.—(CP)—Toronto Marlboros, a team with youth and zip, can wind up the eastern senior hockey final against Sherbrooke Saints in short order tonight.

On the basis of the three previous games, in which the Marlies breezed through the hapless Saints the Toronto club can confine its worries to finance for the trip west and the Allan cup final.

MARLBOROS FAVORED

Marlboros will be top-heavy favorites to polish off the Saints in four straight. Saturday night's game is the first of the series to be staged in Montreal Ice, and should the desperate Saints pull out a win the fifth will be played here Sunday afternoon.

It's a safe bet that a good many Montrealers will turn out largely to see the Marlies perform, particularly brilliant Danny Lewicki and George Armstrong.

The Saints, though, haven't given up. They figure that with four days rest they will make a much better showing and carry the series over to a Sunday game on ice familiar to them.

Marlboros will arrive in the morning and manager Harold Ballard said in Toronto: "We're going full out in tonight's game." The players are all reported in good condition.

Ballard said Marlboros still are not too sure about going west for the Allan cup final if they defeat Sherbrooke.

TWO GAMES—$200

Earlier Coon Smythe, managing director of Maple Leaf Gardens, said he wanted a fair deal for Marlboros before the western trip be agreed to. He said of the last two games in the current series the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association got $12,121, of which Marlies got only $200.

"We're under quite an expense," said Ballard. He added that the railroad agent telephoned him to say the CAHA had arranged for 18 tourist-class tickets for the trip to Calgary, leaving April 25 if Marlboros win the eastern final by then.

"We've never travelled anything but first class," said Ballard. "I told the agent to forget about the tourist-class tickets."

He said Marlboros would make their own arrangements. If they travel by train they will go first class but he was considering the possibility of flying west.

Derby Hopes Show Class

Followers of the Kentucky Derby gradually are getting a line on most members of the field that will go gatewards at Churchill Downs, May 6.

Just yesterday the California hope, Your Host, set a new track mark for seven furlongs at Keeneland, to indicate that he's getting primed for the big test two weeks from now.

Another pair of derby eligibles, Hill Prince and Middleground, are scheduled to battle it out today, at Jamaica, New York, in the $40,000 Wood Memorial. This is considered to be a traditional eastern preview of the blue-grass classic.

Contestants in the Bulletin's third annual Kentucky derby contest now have the opportunity of filing entries. The form below is "official".

Entries close at midnight, Thursday, May 4. Idea is to name in order, the first four horses across the finish line. Contestants may file only one entry.

What They Said . . .

Bill Maher, Saskatoon Quakers: "When Cy (Thomas) breaks in there, let's all ignore him."

Elmer Kreller, Edmonton Flyers: "Yeah, I'm ready. Think I'll have a cigarette first. Nervous, I guess."

Johnny Chad, Providence Reds, most gentlemanly player, American Hockey league: "They don't play hockey today. It's all high sticks, charging, butt-ends."

Bey Bentley, Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen: "Hi yah, boy. Yes, I had a pretty good year."

Budd Williamson, president EAC: "What's the house like?"

Harvey (Pug) Young, who arrived at Ramblers' dressing room slightly behind schedule: "Now, I wasn't drivin' around town in my new car. I was washin' it."

Colin Kilburn: "I hear Doug Bentley isn't feeling right. Says his nerves aren't too good. Bet he'll only get four or five goals tonight."

★ ★ ★

Jack McGill, Providence Reds, second in assists American Hockey league: "Gosh, I sold those skates to a fellow before the war. And here I am, wearin' 'em again. Better, though, than tryin' to wear a pair I've never had on. Hey, let's get out there. Shouldn't let those guys get too warm on us."

Andy Clovechok: "Here comes the typewriter jockey."

Doug Bentley, Chicago Black Hawks, most popular hockey player of the half-century in the Windy City: "That award really thrilled me. Considered it a great honor. What do you call it? I forget, now. Anyway, the Herald-American was behind it. Luke Appling won it for baseball. No, can't say I know Appling."

Bud Evans, Flyers' Forgotten Man: "Hey, Hardy. Got another piece of lemon?"

Doug Hardy, Flyer trainer, to Evans: "Whadda yuh wanta do, score another goal?"

Budd Williamson: "How's the house?"

Cy Thomas, Saskatoon Quakers: "Just open the gate at the north end and I'll keep right on going."

Bill Pettinger: "Sure, I can go for having my picture taken. But you realize I haven't got my front teeth with me?"

★ ★ ★ ★

Harvey (Pug) Young (again): "Too bad Anderson didn't have a Seeing-Eye dog with him when I let him in there. Hey, Doug—some guys got it and some haven't, eh? Do you know what? I think I know as much about refereeing as Moon does?"

Referee Reg Moon: "I was figuring to put Mullen off. Skated right alongside and told him to hook somebody. Guess he didn't hear me."

Referee Kilby Mullen, also Saskatoon Quaker coach, who trailed places with defenceman Young in the closing minutes: "Did just what I've been telling the guys not to do all winter. Shot that puck right at the goalkeeper."

Doug Lane, to 'Pug Young: "What were you trying to do to Bathgate out there, cut his head off? Boy, did you ever clip him?"

Hugh Currie, cut lip and all: "Everybody got a ride uptown."

Dan Carrigan, coach of winning Roamers: "I get a bang out of this every year."

Ray Frederick: "This is it. No more hockey this year. Myself, I'm gonna play baseball all day Sunday."

Budd Williamson: "How was the house?"

STOWING away rocks for another season are three members of Edmonton Curling club. Bill Watson, front, and Don Butt, centre, make up 50 per cent of club's championship rink, skipped by Butt. Edmonton club secretary George Laight aids in 'disposal' of rocks. Club held final get-together of season in clubrooms last night.

ECC TITLE

Joe Hilts Trophy To Don Butt

By Bart Gibb

Don Butt, who piloted his rink to 25 wins, was presented with the Joe Hilts trophy, emblematic of the club championship, last night at the Edmonton Curling club.

Butt and his rink, third Cliff Butt, second Bill Watson and lead Ron Butt, were presented the trophy by Cliff Lee, president of the club, who acted as chairman throughout the meeting and presentations.

As the curtain was raised at the shareholders' gathering, Lee read a letter to the curlers, pertaining to making the Alberta Curling Association bonspiel a better event which will be forwarded to the Association.

Listed among the suggestions were a reduction in the number of games played by each rink; city curlers and Association executives be advised to show more friendliness towards country rinks. It also was mentioned Edmonton needs better representation at out-of-town spiels.

Five new officials were elected to the board last night for two year terms. They were: Don Butt, Arden Brown, Herb Coxford, Bob Edwards and Wes Van Dusen.

★ ★ ★

These, along with Cliff Lee, Hugh Millar, Bob MacGregor, Frank Brissette and Charlie Cairns, all of whom still have one year of office, will meet at a later date to decide in which capacity each will operate.

It was also brought up at the meeting that next season the club will have the use of an ice-shaver.

Following are the section winners:

"A" Section (Sicks Brewery trophy): Arden Brown skip, Barr Dingle 2nd, Herb Coxford 2nd, Tom Magee lead.

"B" Section (Acme Novelty trophy): Frank Wolfe skip, Pep Moon 3rd, Bob Dingle 2nd, Berg lead.

"C" Section (Jack Hays trophy): Bob Mardinger skip, Herb Edwards 3rd, Charlie Wood 2nd, Evan Wolfe, lead.

"D" Section (Presto Cleaners trophy): Jim Johnston skip, Horace Johnson 3rd, R. Henderson 2nd, Bob Crofton lead.

"E" Section (C. Dodd trophy): Johnny Metz skip, Dick Winkenast 3rd, Curly Butchart 2nd, Ted Letebvre lead.

Ben Section (Reg Beasley trophy): Ray Rayment skip, Art Hays 3rd, Paul Burton 2nd, Martin Reynolds lead.

"G" Section: Art Wolfe skip, Lou McCullough 3rd, Paul Bowlen 2nd, Ed Johnson lead.

TOP PITCHER

Jerry Seaman In Esk Fold

General manager John Ducey seemingly is embarked on a one-signature-a-day routine.

Yesterday it was pitcher Gerry Seaman who inked an Eskimo form.

This brings to four the number of ball tossers who recently have signified their intention of giving their all for the blubber-eaters in the coming Big Four Baseball league season.

For several seasons Seaman has been one of the mainstays of the Esk pitching corps. As well he's a dangerous hitter, probably a throw-back to his days as an infielder.

Others who have signed an Esk contract are manager Ed Morris, outfielders Marsh Johnson and Dave Brockie, and shortstop Lem Karlson.

HOT-COLD STAMPS FAVORED TONIGHT

CALGARY, April 22.— (CP) — Calgary Stampeders have railbirds calling them a hot-and-cold hockey club, but they can strengthen out a lot of bewildered fans with a victory against Port Frances Canadians here tonight.

Stampeders lead the best-of-seven Western Canada Allan cup final two games to one. In goals their lead is 22 to 4.

Coach Joe Balzan of the Forts says his boys—all in good shape except Doc Johnson, who has a head cold—"will give them all we've got."

Samis Wields Axe In Dodger Ranks

Owner-general manager Ken Samis wielded the axe last night as his Big Four Baseball league Dodgers worked out at Renfrew Park.

And by the time he had finished chopping, the following remained in the Dodger ranks:

Barry Robertshaw, Morrie Hawkey, Vern Callihan, Glen Thompson, Eddie Kapuscinski, Don Bailey, Pete Petiger, Pete Wright, Jim Ryan, Mike Machinery, Don Simon, Al Purvis, Sid Delano and Tommy Brant.

All the above players are requested to turn out for practice tomorrow afternoon at 1:30.

John Ducey, general manager of the Eskimos, also announced that a practice would be held for his club tomorrow afternoon, following the Dodger practice.

This will give the rail-birds a chance to get a glimpse of Ducey's new outfielder, Marsh Johnson who arrived in Edmonton earlier this week.

Playing manager Eddie Morris will take charge of the workout among those expected to turn out are Johnson, Dave Brockie, Lem Karlson, Gerry Seaman and Johnny Clarke, who already have inked an Esk long form.

STRANAHAN 'CHASED' IN NORTH-SOUTH GOLF

PINEHURST, N.C., April 22.—(AP)—Wynnot K Spencer, 30-year-old insurance man from Newport News, Va., came up with four important putts in the last five holes yesterday to eliminate defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., 2 and 1, in the semifinals of the North and South Amateur golf tournament.

Joining him in today's 36-hole final will be another insurance man, William C. Campbell, a member of the West Virginia House of Delegates.

Campbell turned back 47-year-old New Jersey banker J. Wolcott Brown of Manasquan, 6 and 5.

Track Mark Set By Your Host

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 22.—(CP)—Movieman William Goetz' Your Host blistered the track at Keeneland yesterday as he set a record for seven furlongs and planted himself firmly as a major contender for the Kentucky Derby.

The chestnut colt, son of imported stallion Alibhai, toured the $1,000 Spartel Gate distance in 1:22 2/5, cutting 1 2/5 seconds off the mark set by Of Skipper last Tuesday.

Finishing behind the California hope for the $100,000-added Churchill Downs classic May 6 were Mr. Trouble from the C. V. Whitney stable and trainer Ben Jones' Calumet farm candidate, Theory, who captured the show spot in a photo.

Your Host, rated one of the greatest Derby Candidates to come from the West coast since Morvich covered the finish line first in 1922, returned $7.40, $4.40 and $3.60.

Mr. Trouble paid $6.20 and and $4.00, and Theory $3.60.

Jockey Johnny Longden, veteran western Canada-booter, took Your Host in to the lead at once and kept the winner of the Santa Anita Derby last February there for the entire distance.

HAYMAN WOULD WELCOME TOM CASEY

MONTREAL, April 22. — (CP) — Manager-coach Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes said yesterday that Tom Casey would be a welcome addition to the Alouette football team but he has no knowledge of Casey's plans.

Casey has let it be known in Hamilton that he won't be with the Wildcats in the Big Four next season because he wants to attend medical school and can't do it in Hamilton.

The speedy Negro backfielder is reported to have had an offer from Winnipeg Blue Bombers, in which city he could attend University of Manitoba.

YEAH, SLOWINSKI

Rangers Confident

DETROIT, April 22—(CP)—A quiet air of confidence has settled over New York Rangers' camp as the giant-killers of the National Hockey league await tonight's game with Detroit Red Wings.

Victory would bring Blueshirts their first Stanley cup since 1940. Rangers lead the best-of-seven final series, 3-2.

The pride of the Rangers at the moment is Long Sleeper Ralegh, who scored a goal in overtime to break the season-champion Wings 2-1 Thursday night. It was Raleigh's second game-winning, overtime goal in as many games.

Tall Don yesterday gave all credit for his deciding marker to linemate Ed Slowinski.

"Eddie did all the work. It was the best pass I've ever had." Raleigh was speaking of the pass that Slowinski gave him right in front of the Detroit nets and which drew Harry Lumley off position, enabling Raleigh to score.

Another Murderers' Row? N. Y. Blasts Senators 14-7

By STEVE ROBERTSON

NEW YORK, April 22 — (CP)—The world champion New York Yankees, a stand-pat club from last year, apparently haven't lost any of their deadly batting power. The Bombers yesterday clubbed out 18 hits against five Washington pitchers for a lopsided 14-7 victory back on home grounds.

Meanwhile, in other American league games, Boston Red Sox whipped Philadelphia 8-2. At Detroit, the Tigers took their third straight win by beating Chicago White Sox 4-1.

In the National league, Pittsburgh Pirates downed Cincinnati Reds 7-5. Over in Brooklyn, Roy Campanella's grand-slam four-bagger featured a 14-hit Dodger attack for an 8-1 decision over New York Giants.

CARDS DUMPED

Chicago Cubs blanked St. Louis Cardinals 2-0 at Chicago, while an eighth-inning thunderstorm broke off Boston Braves' home opener in a 2-2 tie with Philadelphia Phillies to round out the day's play.

Yankees batting barrage included home runs by Joe DiMaggio, Tom Henrich, Yogi Berra and pitcher Tom Byrne.

Byrne started for New York and allowed only five hits until he was yanked in the seventh. Joe Page, Yanks' ace relief man, took over and stopped the Senators to gain credit for his first win of the season.

Vern Stephens provided the big blow in Boston's win over the A's. He clouted a grand-slam homer while Al Zarilla contributed three hits.

WILLIAMS ON SHELF

Ted Williams, powerhouse outfielder for the Sox, did not play. He was left in Boston with a severe attack of grippe.

Chicago grabbed a one-run lead in the fourth before Detroit managed to come from behind in the eighth on a three-run homer by Vic Wertz.

Outfielder Wally Westlake was the big gun in the Blues win over the Reds. By driving across six runs with two circuit clouts and a single, Ralph Kiner aided Pittsburgh cause with another homer.

THREE FOR ROOKIE

Campanella's bases-clearing hit came in the third inning when he slammed Dave Koslo's pitch over the left-field fence.

Every Dodger except Preacher Roe connected safely at least once.

Baseballers Start Training

Transit's Maple Leafs' entry in the Junior baseball league will hold their first practice Sunday afternoon at 1:00.

Workout will be held at the Maple Leaf diamond (118 avenue and 104 street) and all wishing to try out are requested to be on time.

A Singer Session

Coach Alec Pringle has called a practice for the Singer Fastball team Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. All players wishing to try out are asked to report to the west end way diamond.

Pontiacs Play

Price-Andrews' Pontiacs, senior men's baseball entry will hold a practice Sunday, at 12:30, at Kinsway. Anyone wishing to try for the team is asked to be on hand.

Legion To Practice

Norwood Legion football squad will practice Sunday morning at 10:00, on the Victoria composite high school grounds. All interested are requested to turn out.

2 MONTHS SENTENCE FOR REFEREE ATTACK

CALGARY, April 22.—(CP)—Kenneth Goddard of Calgary, who climbed over the boards and struck referee Jerry Trudel during a hockey game here April 9, yesterday was sentenced to two months imprisonment at hard labor.

Goddard was one of four men arrested on charges of assault occasioning bodily harm to Trudel during a game between Canmore and a Calgary entry in the Rix Six league.

The three others involved were Steve Krizan, Joe Sawchuk and John Hurschika, of the Canmore club. Charge against Hurschika was dismissed. Krizan and Sawchuk were remanded to Monday for defence testimony.

Latest U.K. Car Soon In Canada

Sports Sedan Has Similar Engine To AAA Winner

A new Austin Sports Sedan, powered by the same engine that last year captured 63 official AAA speed and endurance records at Indianapolis, will be introduced in this country at the Canadian International Trade Fair to be held at Toronto from May 29 through June 9.

The new model will have the same type 88-horsepower engine used in Austin's world-famous "Atlantic" convertible. It is a valve-in-head motor with a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

In appearance, the new five-passenger sedan is streamlined, with a gracefully sloping hood that permits the driver to view both front fenders with ease.

The new Austin is styled on the lines of the "Atlantic" except that the roof is permanent, something on the order of what Americans call "hardtop" models.

LEATHER UPHOLSTERY

The body is of steel and aluminum construction, and leather upholstery is used. The rear seat is larger than in the convertible, because space is not required for a fold-down top.

The rear window is exceptionally large, with a centre opening panel, and there is a folding arm rest in the rear seat.

Hinged ventilating windows on the front doors, hinged rear quarter windows, rear luggage trunk, quick-lift door window handles, adjustable seats, adjustable steering wheel, and heater and defroster are added features of the new sedan.

In all, Austin will exhibit 13 different passenger and commercial models at the Trade Fair.

Test Defies Lightning As Man Unhurt

SUNNYVALE, Cal.—(UP) — A man in a gray tweed suit sat calmly in a car while a 2,400,000-volt discharge of lightning struck the roof.

He stepped out unscathed.

The lightning was man-made, part of a demonstration by Westinghouse engineers. The bolt came from a 25-foot high generator which resembles a modern diving platform.

Westinghouse is using the generator to test transformers. Engineers figure if the transformers can stand up under the man-made lightning bolt, they should be able to stand the kind nature displays.

Joseph H. Cox, engineer in charge, said the safest place to be if an electrical storm strikes is in an all-steel shell, and a "car is made to order."

Other antics at the demonstration included bending a 12-foot lightning bolt into a W. The engineers also set fire to a barn, blew the top off a steeple and split a two by four board. All except the board were miniatures.

CARE IN transplanting will eliminate harmful effects caused in this way by amateur gardeners. Proper methods here are: left, mix plant food with soil over hole; centre, pour starter solution over roots; right, draw soil into solution to fill holes.

TRANSPLANTING CARE AVOIDS PLANT SHOCK

When the amateur gardener sets out in his garden plants which were started early in a greenhouse, hotbed or a window of his home, he wants every one to live.

The way to insure this is to regard transplanting as an operation, with the plant as patient, and to make sure that it is performed with a minimum of shock.

If shocks a plant to move it, and gives it a set-back, but there are advantages in giving it an early start, weeks before seed can be sown in the garden. The plants that stand the operation best are stocky rather than tall, with strong stems and abundant roots.

If grown in pots, plant bands or small flats, so you get them with roots undisturbed, so much the better. But even bare root plants can be transplanted with proper care.

FEED FOR WEEK

If you grow your own plants, feed them a week before the operation with liquid plant food, and water them well the day before. Prepare a starter solution by lanning a cloth bag containing commercial plant food in a bucket of water and letting it soak overnight.

Use 4 ounces of a 4-11-4 mixture or similar to each gallon of water. Or use a special soluble plant food, according to directions.

Dig a hole large enough to hold the roots spread out, cover the soil about them. Taking care not to injure the roots, hold the plant in its place, then pour into the hole, over the plant roots, ½ pint of starter solution.

While the solution is in the hole draw in the loose soil and firm it around the plant. The solution not only supplies nutrients but puddles the soil about the roots, making it easy for the plant to take up water.

NO PRUNING

Roots of plants should not be pruned. Replacement of lost roots must take place before the plant can grow very much.

Tops of plants should not be pruned, as shown by research results. Pruning removes part of the "factory" which has to make the new plant material on which growth depends.

Inner Tube Fills Breach

Instead of allowing water from the downspout to collect in pools at the corner of the house, one homemaker uses a flexible extension made from lengths of inner tube to divert the water where desired. In this way, the water can be piped to the flower garden or it can be directed to a particular shrub or hedge that is in need of extra watering.

The connector to the downspout and the couplings for joining the lengths of inner tube are made from tin cans.

After both ends of the cans have been removed, the cans are inserted in the ends of the inner-tube sections.

The portion of the inner-tube around each can is wrapped tightly with strong cord to keep the can from slipping out.

PROMPTNESS IN PAYMENTS IS ESSENTIAL

If you buy a home on monthly mortgage payments do not expect leniency on collections on the part of the bank or savings association holding your mortgage.

Chances are you will not be billed for payment. You are expected to remember and make the payment before the 10th of each month, or whatever date is agreed upon. If you slip up, you can be charged interest not only on the outstanding balance, but also on the interest already charged and payable on the first of the month.

Fast Boiling Kettle

The American creator of the self-contained coffee maker, has perfected a Pyrex kettle which heats water through an electrical coil immersed in the water. Coil will boil the water in five minutes.

Window Protection

Steel guards form a positive protection for windows if your children are confirmed crawlers on window ledges. Available now in the first made specially for steel casement windows: installation requires no special tools, can be completed in two minutes from the inside. Standard size adjustable for windows 34⅜ to 36⅜ inches.

CHORE-SAVING CART BOON TO HOUSEWIVES

Household chores are made easier by a lightweight cart that totes anything from the weekly wash to trash barrels and groceries.

Designed like a hand cart, the little buggy has two wheels on a welded frame.

A shelf pivots down at just the right height to hold a laundry basket.

When the cart is to be used for carrying larger items, the shelf can be tilted up along the frame where it is out of the way.

Pupils Of 2000 A.D. Will Have Cushy Time

HALIFAX.—(CP)—What will the classroom of 2000 A.D. be like? Prof. C. H. Mercer of Dalhousie University in Halifax thinks it will bear little resemblance to present day schoolrooms.

Pupils will likely be ensconced in swivel chairs, prophesies the professor. There will be no blackboards, which he describes as "a curse." Students will relax in comfortable chairs and listen to a tape recorder spiel off the day's French lesson.

Teachers, freed from the blackboard, will devote their time to checking on their wards' attentiveness.

Pro. Mercer says the classroom of the future will be built around the microphone. The machine will play back the pupils' speech and the class will criticize.

For the teacher, life will begin at 55, predicts the professor. Teachers are at their best between the ages of 50 and 70, he says.

Young teachers are too personal and sensitive, while the older ones see life and the pupils with eternity as a background Prof. Mercer is 64.

He says students can't be taught the fundamentals of a foreign language in three years of high school. The correct way to teach French, which is the professor's specialty, is to have the pupils listen to the recorded lesson the first time.

Then they should recite the lesson into the microphone and listen as it is played back.

The professor has great faith in the tape recorder and microphone as aids to teaching. "The future," says Prof. Mercer "has great things in store for these gadgets."

Killam Hospital Category Raised

KILLAM, April 22.—Killam General hospital has been raised from category "D" to category "C" for general hospitalization purposes.

This will make it eligible for the care of the group eligible for hospitalization under the amendment of the Bureau of Public Welfare act.

This is greatly due to the help and support the people of the district have given the hospital. Through them, furnishings, equipment, including an X-ray machine, have been purchased which has given the hospital its present standing.

Much credit is also due to the Sisters who operate the hospital.

Bank Manager Ends Service

VIKING, April 22.—C. R. Smith, manager of Viking branch of the Bank of Montreal since 1944, is retiring this month after 46 years in banking service.

Born in St. Thomas, Ont., Mr. Smith began his career there in 1904 and eight years later was transferred to Winnipeg. He received his first managerial appointment at Bowsman River, Man., in 1922 and has held similar positions at Duck Lake, Chauvin and Sedgewick.

His successor is Harold Leitch, manager of the bank's Foresburg branch for the past five and a half years.

Frig Bonspiel To be Repeated

VIKING, April 22—Another Refrigerator bonspiel will be held next year from Jan. 16 to 20, the Viking Curling club decided at their recent annual meeting.

This year's Frig 'spiel showed a small balance and the club was out of the "red" with a balance of $140.

Arrangements were made for the sale of rocks in possession of the club, in anticipation of the 32 pair of matched rocks now on their way from Scotland.

Election of officers was deferred until the fall meeting.

LEGION HALL OPENS MAY 3

LEDUC, April 22.—Members of the Canadian Legion and Ladies' Auxiliary are busy with plans for the official opening of the new Legion hall on May 3.

Provincial president George Gleave will officiate. Representatives of the government, navy, army, air force and the RCMP have been invited. The army and air force bands will be in attendance.

The number of pigs in Australia in March 1949, was 1,193,000, compared with 1,156,000 in 1939.

Pigeon Races to Begin in May

DRUMHELLER, April 22—Drumheller Racing Pigeon Club will open the season on May 20 with a flight from Alsask. Dick Forshaw, secretary of the club, announced plans for three other races from points in Saskatchewan.

Officers of the club are: Tom McCue, president; Dick Forshaw, secretary; Executive—J. Whitehead, J. Saville, R. Keltz and Harold Thorley.

LONDON, April 22 — (CP) — Treading hard on the heels of England's soccer season, county cricket gets underway here April 29, the same day as the F. A. cup final.

TRIBUTE FROM CHINESE

CHINESE OF EDMONTON yesterday honored mail carrier Dave Ramsay for his faithful service to their community. In post office ceremony, Henry Moh and Binet Moh, leaders of community, presented Ramsay with gold watch. He had served their community since 1919. Ramsay, who lives at 11226-67 street, retires on May 11. There are 500 Chinese in city and most live on Ramsay's route.

Spring In Edmonton

Russians shoot at airplanes
In peace as well as war,
And flying saucers roam around
Until they're just a bore.

Our Edmonton, with oil galore,
Will neither boom nor bust,
But citizens get really mad
At this infernal dust.

★ ★ ★ ★

Elegant Elsie thinks people must be mistaken about seeing flying saucers over Edmonton. "I'm sure they must be dust bowls," says Elsie.

★ ★ ★ ★

Ahoy! The Lean Mary

Ship ahcy! What ship is that?

Staff photographer Eric Bland sure started something with that exclusive shot of the Lean Mary docking near the low level bridge. The Bulletin's switchboard has been swamped with nautical queries ever since.

Pete, at Jack Hays Cab Co., did quite a business driving parties down to the river bank who wanted to look at the Lean Mary. I'm told that Skipper Kipper Herring had to up anchor and run for the nearest bar when the ice started drifting down. When last seen the captain had a full head of steam.

Here's a note from E. Peters of the South Side Sash and Door Co.

The management of this company would like to obtain passage on the Lean Mary for May 24. We thought it would be a nice gesture to take employes and their families to Fort Saskatchewan for the day. Can you have Capt. Kipper Herring quote us round-trip fares?

PS: Tell the Adby Construction Co. we shall be pleased to quote prices on peephole storm sash for winter construction.

★ ★ ★ ★

Martha Adams doesn't mind the dust so much as the dust cure. She writes:

Read your article, "Excuse Our Dust."

Personally, I'd rather have the dust and mud than the shower baths from the sprinkler truck at 5 p.m.

★ ★ ★ ★

There's safety in numbers. Large numbers of Edmonton children should join the Bulletin Whippers Safety club.

★ ★ ★ ★

People were telephoning about seeing flying saucers again last night.

I saw one the other night, and what a letdown! It didn't look like a saucer and it didn't fly.

It looked like a sundog in the night time; a northern light that was fed up with the cold and heading south; or Haley's comet on a souped-up schedule.

★ ★ ★ ★

A very goodnight to all, and especially to folks who sweep their sidewalks off each morning.

Increases In Salaries Ordered For Hospital

Surplus of $1,807 was shown on Royal Alexandra Hospital operations for March.

This gave a first quarter deficit of $9,387, compared with 1949's first-three-month deficit of $59,525.

Estimated deficit for the first quarter was $59,000, Dr. D. R. Easton, hospital superintendent, reported to last night's hospital board meeting.

The improvement in position is due to increased earnings, while operation costs have been kept practically constant.

Cost of raw food for meals decreased five cents per day per patient during March from February costs.

Board members overrode Isabel MacMillan's objection to granting salary increases of $12.50 per month for male employes, and $7.50 per month for female employes.

"I think it's rank discrimination," she said.

Dr. Easton said it was recommended by the union, because of the added family responsibility most male employes have.

The raises will put Royal Alexandra employes above the salary level of other city hospitals, he said.

Dr. Easton, Ald. Fred Mitchell, and S. W. Field, KC, were named a committee with power to choose a successor for Dr. Jack Sturdy, hospital pathologist, whose resignation effective June 30 was accepted.

Welsh Choir Again Heard

Music of 32 strong male Welsh voices made very fine listening Friday evening in First Baptist Church.

Under their conductor, Jack Williams, the Edmonton Welsh Male Chorus proved again their right to a place in the front rank of the fine choral groups.

Particularly impressive were their two closing numbers, the stirring hymns, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah" and "Remember Me!" The tenors and basses literally breathed devotion into the words.

ELOQUENCE

The choir also showed its eloquence in the old Welsh marching song, "Men of Harlech." In lighter vein, they interpreted perfectly the crooning lullaby, "Kentucky Babe," and the humorous "Big Brown Bear."

Assisting artists at the choir's annual concert were Betty Sims, accompanist, Hermiece Melleth, soprano, William Smith, tenor, Egon Grapentin, violinist, and Mary Grapentin, his accompanist.

Mr. Grapentin pleased with his flourishing renditions of the sparkling "Czardas" by Monti and "Zapateado" by Sarasate. In a second appearance he played with feeling "Am Meer" by Schubert-Wilhelmj and Polonoise Brillante by Wieniawski.

Hermiece Melleth's delicate soprano was heard to advantage in "Down in the Forest," and "My Friend."

Tenor William Smith pleased with "Homing" and "When I Have Sung My Songs."

Conductor Jack Williams sang eloquently in his disciplined bass, "Desert Song" and "Sea Fever." (M.S.)

Tofield Twin Operation Date Early In May

Operation to separate Tofield's Siamese twins will be performed during the first week in May.

The twins, Brenda and Beverley Townsend, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Townsend, will be taken to Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton for the operation.

Specialists will work with Dr. William Freebury, Tofield doctor who officiated at birth, and Dr. Eardley S. Allin, Edmonton, in performing the operation.

Artists Draw High Praises At Festival

By IVERS KELLY
Bulletin Staff Writer

Alberta has the finest piano playing and the best choral singing to be heard at any musical festival anywhere in Canada or Britain.

The "velvety" choral singing of 34 young business women of Medicine Hat is at least equal to the best produced in north England, "the great centre of choral singing for the entire world," Alec Redshaw of London, Eng., said last night.

Singing of the women, aged 18 to 30, was "so warm it was velvety," he said. "It was so steady, so true."

TROPHY

Mr. Redshaw presented to the choir's leader, Mrs. Leonard Metlen, the Henry Shield they won in competition and the cup for being the best choir in the festival. He apologized that he had not the power to award them the Lindsay cup as "undoubtedly the best choral group in Canada." This cup is awarded by an adjudicator who, has the opportunity of hearing the Medicine Hat group.

He warmly praised Camrose Lutheran College and Taber High School choirs. He placed Camrose first in a close competition.

Piano playing at the festival has been incredibly magnificent, unmatched at any festival in Canada, Dr. C. S. Lang and Mr. Redshaw emphasized.

"Their work is due largely to the teachers here and in other parts of this great province. May I humbly salute those teachers," Mr. Redshaw said.

Thirteen-year-old Dale Bartlett, son of a farmer at Wilson's Siding near Lethbridge, again won unmatched praise for his piano accomplishments. He was given full marks of 95.

WINNER

Geraldine Mason was award in the competition and Carlina Carr of Calgary, third.

Miss Mason, 23-year-old student of Mme. J. LeSaunier, placed first in a competition which included Schubert's Sonata.

Betty Gray of Kitscoty, "a very promising singer," won first place in the mezzo soprano class with Madge E. Smith of Westlock runner-up.

Winners of main events will be presented with prizes and scholarships at a concert tonight in Mesopogall Church.

Gold Medal Goes Begging

A gold medal went begging yesterday because Alec Redshaw won't lead any singer up the garden path.

That's the sort of English slang he would use when he means he wouldn't "kid" any singer about ability.

The gold medal went begging because he came out first-footedly and said none of the five singers in the contest was worthy of it.

"This class has not been a good one," the London, Eng., musical authority told Alberta Musical Festival audiences; "I cannot make an award."

The five girls in the gold medal contest all had fine voices, but they all seemed "scared to death."

"I hope I haven't been so cruel as to frighten you," he told the young women. "I am here trying to help you. I must tell you the truth."

The moon was observed through a telescope for the first time by Galileo in 1610.

TURN SOD FOR HALL

Sod turning ceremony for Metropolitan United's new church hall is planned for 4 p.m. Sunday, April 30.

With an expected attendance of up to 1,000 persons, the ceremony will be held immediately behind the church at 83 avenue and 109 street.

Provincial, civic and University of Alberta officials are being invited, Rev. Reid Vipond said today.

A prominent spot will be given the 400 to 500 Sunday School pupils expected to attend. The sod turning will take the place of the regular evening church service.

School Division Continues on Own

Jasper Setup Not Concerned By Move For Status As Town

School division of West Jasper Place won't take it on financial chin if the village of Jasper Place—main part of the division—decides to apply for town status.

That assurance was given last night by Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, at a meeting of the Jasper Place Taxpayers' Association.

"As far as I can see the department has the entire say on whether you are a rural or a town district," the minister stated. "The fact Jasper Place might become a town doesn't necessarily effect the rating."

RATING

He said the department's rating of a school district was based more on what the district could pay on school costs, than on the question of whether it was a town or a village.

The West Jasper school division at present has rural status, though it is on the highest grant structure as far as the provincial government is concerned.

W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of schools took over the chalk to explain the provincial government's new School Borrowing Assistance Act.

He said the government had a $3,000,000 fund available to help finance new schools in the province.

Application for school building assistance must be made to the board of public utility commissioners, it was explained.

Scheduled for construction in 1950, on a site to be selected is a six-room school to augment the village's present 36 bulging classrooms.

Assurances that departmental grants would not be affected by change from village to town status also came opportunely for village council faced with a record 300,000 school bonds repayment this year.

Jasper Place Village Hall Plans Ready

Plans have been approved for Jasper Place village office building-fire hall. Cost is expected to be about $11,000. Unless a plebiscite is found necessary final reading of the bylaw will be made the first week in May.

★ ★ ★

Village council has authorized prosecution of persons proceeding with building construction without a building permit. It has also been passed that building permits issued cover a rule also must be removed at village office.

★ ★ ★

New police office, courtroom and jail cells have been completed, in the basement of the Model Dairy building, Chief Lawrence Hickey and Justice of the Peace R. F. Cunningham have moved into their new offices.

★ ★ ★

A bylaw taxing business firms has passed first and second readings. The business assessment is in addition to property assessment.

Insurance Salesmen Must Give Service

Many life insurance men have a lot to learn about how "service" to their clients according to Claude F. Dunlop of Vancouver.

Addressing the afternoon session of the Northern Alberta Life Underwriters' Association annual sales congress, he said, that the question of service has been "overemphasized and underworked."

Mozart Gift Seen In Canadian Boy

By Ivers Kelly
Bulletin Staff Writer

Canada has shown a musical genius to Dr. C. S. Lang, London, Eng., music authority who has judged music and musicians in more than a dozen countries.

The genius was an 11-year-old boy who showed he could duplicate an accomplishment of Mozart which is mentioned in each biography of that famous composer.

Dr. Lang recalled that this boy appeared as a contestant in a competition where pianists were permitted one minute's study of a musical selection. Marks were based on how well they then played it.

PIECE DIFFICULT

"It was an open competition in Toronto with skilled, mature pianists in their 20's entered," Dr. Lang said. "So of course I set a very difficult piece.

"This boy, only 11 years old, played it perfectly.

"He played not only the notes, but he gave the piece real interpretation.

"He played it as though he might have known it all his life—a much longer life than 11 years.

"It was amazing.

"Then later, when we were discussing the piece, he asked to look at it. He already packed it away and said so.

"The boy said, 'Oh, that's all right. I can play it from memory.'

"He did too, without a fault.

MOZART DID IT

"It was the sort of thing Mozart could do," said Dr. Lang. He was referring to the outstanding composer feat of going one day to the Sistine Chapel in Rome and afterwards writing down from memory Allegri's famous Miserere, the composition of which was guarded as a mystery. Singers had been forbidden to transcribe it on pain of excommunication."

The meeting with the gifted boy in Toronto was something even a wadeslrassellled adjudicator could scarcely hope to find even once in a lifetime, "Certainly no more than once in a lifetime," said Dr. Lang.

The English music authority said that lots of music "is deplorably neglected" and "some teachers, never bother about it at all." He emphasized that "it is the most important part of any musician's equipment." Although it is a gift, it can be acquired through "sheer hard work."

ADVICE TO STUDENTS

He told students:

1. Read music for five minutes a day whenever you go to the piano to practice.

2. Practice sight reading in a duet. Then you can't stop if you're stuck, but must go on.

3. When you make a mistake, keep on playing. Never stop to correct a mistake. Keep going. Most of the people listening to you won't know you've made a mistake unless you go back over to correct it.

4. Never look at your hands. You may improve at them if you need to make them from one end of the music to the other. But make it a rule not to look at them.

5. The real secret is to read ahead. You never read what you're playing, you read what you're going to play. That's putting a lot you have heard at once, but it can be done.

Duets Still Hold Sway On Records

The swing is still to duets on records.

RCA Victor has a new one this week in Marily Carson and Dan Cornell, who team up in "Go to Sleep, Go to Sleep, Go to Sleep" and "Ask Me No Questions."

Their voices blend splendidly in both.

The Carson-Cornell performance is a sturdy competitor to the Godfrey-Martin version of "Go to Sleep" for Columbia and the Betty Barrett-Larry Parks version for MGM.

"Go to Sleep" is being watched closely by the recording industry, since it is a part of the new trend of writing songs deliberately for duets rather than for individual singers.

Other singles recommended:

"Dear Wanna Be Kissed" and "Thanks Man Thanks," by Ray McKinley and orchestra (Victor).

"Time and Dands" and "Somebody Loves Me," by Oscar Peterson Trio (RCA Victor).

"Time and Time Again" and "Why," by Wayne King (RCA Victor).

"I Wish I Could Shimmy Like My Sister Kate" and "More Than I Should," by Helen Forrest (MGM).

"As We Are Today" and "Melancholy Rhapsody," by Johnnie Johnston (MGM).

HAWAIIAN

London brought in a selection of Hawaiian music by one its new artists, Roland Peachey. Canadians, Peachey has made a name for himself playing at the Mardair Hotel in London, England. This is the first time that his music has been made available in Canada.

Peachey gives a refreshingly new interpretation to such tunes as "Cross Bow," "Lovely Come Back to Me," "Hawaiian War Chant," "Sweet-hearted Hula," and "On the Beach of Waikiki." There are seven records in this first group of Peachey tunes brought to Canada.

WESTERNS

For folk song lovers, there's Will Carlos, cowpoke and philosopher, and Unfaithful One," (RCA Victor) and the sprightly "Love at the County Fair," by Dale Evans and Lloyd Perryman (RCA Victor). Miss Evans does a fine job. "Talking Dreams," by Elizabeth Clarke, the Vancouver nurse who wrote the Wonderful Girl," A-1.

DENNIS MAHONEY
. . . For Hollywood?

Screen Test For Dennis?

"Blondes, redheads, brunettes . ." Working with 18 beautiful Hollywood starlets is an enjoyable part of a day's work for Edmonton-born Dennis Mahoney, back in the city for a visit.

A member of Glen Strange's Asylum of Horrors, the 20-year-old Edmontonian has really been around. The show recently toured India, Africa and Europe as well as various Canadian and American cities.

It all started around Christmas two years ago when he met Blackstone the Magician. A tour with "the world's greatest" magician established Mahoney with a few contacts. One of them, Roger Murcel of New York, is his booking agent.

He may get his greatest chance to crash the spotlight in June. That's when he may get a screen test for producer David Selznick of Universal pictures. Selznick brought fame to many stars, one of the latest being John Derek.

Asylum of Horrors is a unit of Universal.

45-MINUTE ACT

In the show, which is taken from Ken Murray's Blackouts, Mahoney does 45 minutes of comedy and sings three numbers. The show itself is about two and a half hours long.

And according to Don Simon well known city athlete, the show is great. Simon recently saw the show in Chicago.

Mahoney will leave Edmonton soon to rejoin the company in Miami, Florida, where it is scheduled to play.

St. George and Shakespeare Share Honors This Sunday

By Maury Soward
Bulletin Staff Writer

Programs commemorating St. George's Day and Shakespeare's birthday feature this week's Sunday radio listening.

The entertainment high-spot should be a Lister Sinclair adaptation of Shakespeare's "Love's Labor Lost" on Stage 50. One of the hard's lightest comedies, it should do well at the hands of Mr. Sinclair, who has earned a well-deserved reputation as Canada's top radio dramatist. CBX at 7 p.m.

At 11:30 p.m., the CBC will replay a BBC transcription on which the story of St. George and the Dragon is told and some of Shakespeare's great lines on war and peace read.

CKUA will present two programs along similar lines. At 5 p.m. "Time for Verse" will be devoted to Shakespearian readings and at 6 p.m. there will be a St. George's Day program of verse, songs and music.

If you like your popular music in small packages, the big networks has four good 15-minute shows Monday through Friday.

On CFRN, at 5:15, Jack Smith and Dinah Shore hold forth, backed by Frank DeVal and his orchestra. Following them at 5:30 is Bob Crosby, who gets more than adequate help from the Andrews Sisters and songstress Evelyn Knight.

CBS has littin' Martha Tilton and Curt Massey at 4:45 on KSL if you can pick it up. Country Washburne and his band help out.

The NBC entry in the 15-minute popular music derby is that fine team of Frank Sinatra and Dorothy Kirsten, on KOA at 9 p.m. Miss Kirsten is the young lady who caused so many eyebrows last summer when she left the Metropolitan Opera to sing popular music with Sinatra.

She was and is one of the Met's top-notch operatic stars, but is doing just as well in the popular medium. Actually, she was singing popular music before opera. In fact, she might still be singing pops on a small station's sustaining program had not the late Grace Moore made her a protege and introduced her to grand opera.

★ ★ ★

Another good 15-minute daily, in the non-musical field, is the Beulah Love starring Hattie McDaniel. She plays the part of an amiable colored maid whose domestic adventures make good situation comedy. On CFRN at 5 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Lovers of folk-songs are currently almost getting their fill of this line music. The CBC has two programs of folk music and NBC has just started a third.

Operetta At McDougall

Among forthcoming events will be Humperdinck's well-known operetta, "Hansel and Gretel."

The production will be staged in McDougall School auditorium, 107 street, and 109 avenue, May 4 and 5 at 8 p.m.

This charming musical play is being produced by the McDougall Singing Club, under the direction of H. A. Wallis, assisted by members of the McDougall School staff.

This club was formed early in the school year to the musical interests of children. The club membership was open to students in grades five and six.

Under direction of a student executive, headed by Dean Wallace, Grade Six, the club has had an active year and as its major undertaking decided to stage "Hansel and Gretel."

Role of Gretel is being sung by Lorraine Bayzand, a talented grade five pupil, who recently was awarded first prize in piano competition at the Alberta Music Festival. Hansel is being ably portrayed by Gordon Bray, grade six. Dame Barrow plays the part of Gertrude, the mother, and Alan Surry the part of Peter, the father. Margaret Ruemper is taking the part of the witch.

This production is under the stage direction of Mrs. B. Kelly. Pianist is Miss J. Stewart, and chorus leader is Miss Bette Stinson. Mrs. A. Ehret is in charge of costumes and J. Kirkconnell, lighting and scenery.

Barbara Whiting, CBS' "Junior Miss," writes short stories.

LANA TURNER GETS LESSON

HOLLYWOOD—The tables are turned on Lana Turner—it's her daughter Cheryl Christine who is teaching her.

Cheryl has a governess who speaks French only to the little girl. Now Cheryl is so interested she insists her mother also speak French.

The training came in handy for the actress during the champagne room sequences for "A Life of Her Own," in which Miss Turner is supposed to order the supper in French. Director George Cukor suggested the studio coach one her, but the star refused.

"I have a teacher," said Lana. "My daughter!"

FIREMEN ABJURE MIDWIFERY

BRISTOL, England, April 22 — (AP) — City firemen lodged a formal protest Friday against a proposal that they be trained as midwives.

The fire brigade maintains the ambulance wagon carries maternity cases to the hospital. Up to now a trained midwife has gone along on every trip.

Time was loosed to save money by teaching the firemen how to deliver a baby.

Women Form Auxiliary To Assist CNIB Services

Enterprising Edmonton women have banded together to plan, co-ordinate, develop services for the blind.

An auxiliary has been formed to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind with Mrs. John Sydie as president.

A handful of representatives from various women's organizations met recently and planned the formation of this women's auxiliary. Naming Mrs. R. M. Moore as honorary president, they planned a campaign of fostering interest among Edmonton's citizens in working for the blind.

One of their principle reasons for formation was the project of raising funds to further work of the CNIB and those interested in helping the blind.

Other officers taking active part in the newly-formed auxiliary are Mrs. R. B. Clifton, vice-president; Mrs. G. F. Hagelstein, secretary; Mrs. S. Bruce Smith, treasurer.

Executive committee includes Mrs. R. M. Moore, Mrs. John Sydie, Mrs. Clifton, Mrs. Hagelstein, Mrs. Smith.

Chairmen of sub-committees include Mrs. D. W. Cobbledick, housekeeping service; Mrs. John A. McDougall, personal services; Mrs. W. L. Brintnell, transportation; Mrs. T. B. Thomas-Peter, visiting; Mrs. Ted Cristall, sales; Mrs. J. A. Weber, publicity; Mrs. Thomas-Peter, social and recreation; Mrs. John Sydie, handicrafts.

Most women are representing individual women's groups in the city.

COZILY DECORATED DINING ROOM A HOMEY ATMOSPHERE

STEAMING CUP OF COFFEE is a tonic wherever you are, and guests at the beautiful new CNIB agree heartily with this. Mrs. Alice Evans, left, appreciates the charming, homey atmosphere of the brightly decorated dining room, although blind. Mrs. T. B. Thomas-Peter, representative of Municipal Chapter, IODE, lets a few tone playing hostess to CNIB guests. Mrs. Katherine Townsley enjoys the afternoon refresher too. Theory behind visual color demotion in homes for blind is that cheerful atmosphere may be sensed other than by eye.

First CNIB Auxiliary Tea To Be Next Friday

First official function of the newly formed Edmonton Women's Auxiliary to the CNIB will be a tea at the Institute building Friday from 2:30 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. W. L. Brintnell, [illegible] vice-president of the CNIB for Canada, will have the honor of pouring the first cup of tea.

Guests will be received by Mrs. W. [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Mrs. J. A. Weber.

General conveners are Mrs. John Sydie and Mrs. R. B. Clifton, and Mrs. T. B. Thomas-Peter is tea convener.

Pouring tea will be Mrs. E. C. Manning, Mrs. Sidney Parsons, Mrs. P. P. Griffith, Mrs. Mark Marshall, Mrs. J. C. Bowen, Mrs. R. M. Moore, Mrs. W. A. R. Kerr, Mrs. H. H. Cooper, Mrs. Frank J. Newson, Mrs. L. Podersky, Mrs. W. Stanley Ross and Mrs. H. M. E. Evans.

Spring Blooms Deck Church For Double Ring Ceremony

Rainbow bouquets of daffodils, stocks, tulips and snapdragons decorated Erskine United Church one evening recently when Marion Mae Hemphill became the bride of Norman Neil Strong.

Double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Hinchey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallace Hemphill of Rimbey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Strong of Meanook.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon sheer over satin. Her only ornament was a three-strand pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and white hyacinths.

TWO SISTERS ATTEND

Attending their sister were Miss Ruth and Miss Grace Hemphill. They were frocked respectively in blue brocaded organdy and pink taffeta, and carried colonial bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Robert L. Smith attended his brother-in-law as best man, and the ushers were Joseph Hemphill, brother of the bride, and David McCrimmon, cousin of the bride.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. C. Hall sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. O. Byers, who also played the wedding music.

Receiving later at the Maple Leaf hall, the bride's mother wore a burgundy wine suit with grey and white accessories and a corsage of Joanna Hill roses.

The mother of the bridegroom, who also received, chose a grey silk flowered print. Her accessories were black and white, and Joanna Hill roses were in her corsage.

Three-tier cake, flanked by bouquets of spring flowers, centred the bride's table.

Pouring coffee were Mrs. W. L. Stewart and Mrs. N. McCrimmon, serving were Mrs. H. Brown and Mrs. William Wylie.

Bridal toast was proposed by R. L. Smith.

Following a honeymoon trip to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Strong will make their home in Edmonton.

For travelling the bride wore a blue gabardine suit, two-tone Edwardine topcoat and pink and brown accessories.

Labrador Crafts Tops At CHG Spring Display

Lt.-Gov. Bowlen Opens Showing Of All Canadian Handiwork at Mac

Crafts from Canada's newest province stole the show as the annual spring exhibit of the Canadian Handicraft Guild, Edmonton branch, opened yesterday at the Macdonald hotel.

Colorful hooked rugs, wall hangings and plaques from the Grenfell Mission in Labrador, and Nonia products from the Newfoundland outposts were the centre of attraction.

Typical scenes of the Maritimes coast are depicted in these traditional products, which are made from old stockings, dyed with home-made dyes.

Outstanding woodwork from Labrador was also featured.

Gleaming copper and hand-wrought silver from the artistic hands of T. H. Strom of Harrison Hot Springs attracted much attention.

Included in his display were ornaments, dishes, bowls, desk utensils and jewelry.

Handwoven place mats, cloths, scarves, bags, and skirts from the Maritimes and the Laurentians and Montreal were shown in a rainbow assortment.

EDMONTON CRAFTS

Representing Edmonton's artistic workers were such favorites as needle-point pictures by Mrs. Phillip Jean and weaving by Mrs. F. M. Salter and Mrs. Claude Finlay.

Lt.-Gov. John J. Bowlen officially opened the two-day display yesterday afternoon. Guests were received by Mrs. Phillip Jean, president; Mrs. Annie W. Douglas, past president, and Mrs. A. J. Mc... first vice-president.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bowlen, Major and Mrs. C. V. Deere, Chief Justice George (O'Connor and Mrs. O'Connor, Mrs. W. A. R. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cameron, Mrs. Claude Finlay and Mr. and Mrs. Richard MacDonald.

Geography Course Should Be Bright Says Professor Here

Teaching of geography has heretofore been treated in a dull unimaginative way, Prof. Pierre Deffontaines told a meeting of the Alliance Francaise in the public library recently.

Speaking on "Man and the Forest" he said that civilization is in part the result of man's response to the challenge of nature. Man had to master the forest in order to cultivate land to grow food. In the early stages of development, trees served man's every need.

Trees are one of nature's great-, et gifts, according to Mr. Deffontaines, and should be regarded as an ally rather than something to be destroyed. He showed slides of Brazilian forests.

Introducing the speaker, Miss Paulette Crevoisier noted that he is the director and founder of the French Institute of Geography in Barcelona, and that he has recently been appointed to establish an Institute of Geography at Laval University, Quebec.

Rocky Planer Mill Destroyed by Fire

Cost Will be About $18,000 To Rebuild Officials Figure

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, April 22.—W. T. Nance planer mill and re-saw burned Thursday afternoon and loss is about $14,000.

No one was at the mill at the time Millwright W. Robinson, with three men, had been working on saws in filing room and had left five minutes before alarm. Louis Neidermeser, a near neighbor turned in the alarm about 4 p.m.

A high west wind threatened one and a half million feet of dry piled lumber. Volunteers fought fire for two hours to save office and nearby buildings. Straw at Steve Fleming's farm caught fire but farm was saved.

It is estimated it will cost $18,000 to rebuild and replace machinery. The company spent $5,000 in last three months enlarging the mill for the summer run to begin next week.

Since it was destroyed by fire in February 1948 the mill was running with half a crew. About 15 men will be laid off now but plans are to rebuild immediately. It was partly covered by insurance.

Evil Chenoo Demon Had Heart Of Ice

Today we have another Indian legend from the Mentors of eastern Canada. Little Chief, young and at the top of this story, hopes you enjoy the tale of the Indians and the Chenoo.

Long ago, an Indian and his wife went far to the northwest from their home, to hunt and trap. They built a wigwam and when the snows covered the ground, the husband travelled into the forest in search of game.

SEES MONSTER

One afternoon, when the wife was out gathering wood for the fire, she saw a strange animal coming towards her. As she looked, her heart stood still with terror. The creature was part human part beast and part demon. It was the size and form of an old man. She knew at once he was one of the terrible Chenoo of the north, a cruel monster with a heart of ice and alone who killed and ate the helpless Indians.

But the woman's mind worked quickly. She rushed toward the monster and welcomed him as her father. She took the demon by the hand and led him to the tepee and offered him her husband's clothes to wear. The Chenoo showed no signs of friendliness but just looked at her with anger and hunger.

WARNS HUSBAND

When the woman's husband came home, she warned him of the Chenoo and told of her daring plan. The frightened Indian followed the ruse and heartily welcomed the beast as his father-in-law. The best meal was served to him, and the warmest blanket in the tepee was offered for a bed.

For many days the Chenoo stayed with the Indian couple. He had never known friendliness before and slowly became less angry. After several weeks, the couple knew they were safe, for the Chenoo was now their friend.

ANOTHER CHENOO

As springtime neared the Chenoo called the Indians to him. He told them that another Chenoo was coming, down from the north to kill him. He gave them magical clothes to wear and warned them to hide when the other monster approached. It was death to any one who heard a Chenoo scream.

A few days later, the Chenoo called to his friends. He told them the other Chenoo was coming and for them to hide. He gave the husband a golden horn, and told him to come if he were called. The couple fled to a nearby cave and hid in fear. No sooner were they in their magic garments when they heard the Chenoo scream. The sound almost killed them both, but they had been far enough away to miss the full blast of the terrible scream.

FIGHTING STARTS

Then they heard sounds of fighting. Tall pines fell before the two monsters and boulders were split like peas. When their Chenoo friend called for the Indian, he ran from the cave and, together, they killed the monster from the north.

A few weeks later, the couple decided they must return to their southern home before the spring came. They invited the Chenoo, who consented to live with them. But as they travelled south, the weather became warmer and warmer and the icy heart of the monster grew weak. When they finally reached the couple's village the Chenoo was too weak to walk.

He died that night, but it was not in vain. For his kindness has been recognized by Glooscap, the Great Spirit, and the Chenoo died with the heart of a man. He was no longer a monster.

Sincerely,

Jean Walker

In Memoriam

To assist our readers in preparing In Memoriam notices, the Bulletin has prepared a Booklet of appropriate wordings. Write or telephone 42111 for this Booklet.

In loving memory of my dear brother, Ed Juraskovich, who passed away April 27, 1947.

You're not forgotten, brother dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last
I shall remember thee.

—Brother Mike.

In Memoriam

EVERS

In loving memory of our dear Mother and Grandma, Alice Emma Evers, who passed away April 26th, 1949.

Just a line of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory fond and true.
Just a token of love's devotion,
That our hearts still long for you.
The years of her life were numbered,
When the Messenger whispered low,
"The Master has come and called for thee."
She answered: "I am ready to go."
Lovingly remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gray and family.

RANCH

One of the highest class RANCHES in Western Canada, everything of the very best — land, buildings, cattle. Comprises over 2[illegible],000 acres of deeded land and approximately [illegible],000 acres of leased land. About 4,000 acres cultivated; 6,000 more can be brought under cultivation. Large herd of cattle, numbering from 6,000 to 7,500 head, and about 200 horses. Price of this Ranch will run about $1,[illegible],000, according to amount of equipment which purchaser might require.

960 ACRES FARM, within 40 miles of Edmonton, on hard-surfaced and gravelled highways. 815 acres cultivated. Land is level. Black and brown soil. Excellent water supply. City-style home, 7 rooms, stucco, full basement, steam heat, oak floors, electric lights, sewage disposal. Also 3-roomed cottage for help. Excellent barns. Standard elevator 40,000 bushel capacity (cost $10,000). Chicken house, hog house, 2 garages, tractor garage, chop bin; 3 machine sheds, oil storage warehouse. PRICE: $45,000. TERMS: $30,000 CASH, balance easy. OR, would deal on an APARTMENT BLOCK.

QUARTER SECTION about 4 miles from City Limits, on a hard-surfaced highway. Very high-class land, with good set of buildings—house, double garage, barns, etc. This property will doubtless eventually be taken in for an Annex to the City of Edmonton, and it is a good speculation at today's price. PRICE $150 per Acre. Some terms can be arranged.

Hospital Secretary To Enter Business

VIKING, April 22—H. Rollans, secretary-treasurer of Viking Co-operative association for the past 30 years and of the Viking municipal hospital district, has resigned to enter the real estate business in Edmonton.

He has been replaced at the creamery office by John K. Marsh of St. Albert, former secretary of that village. New secretary-treasurer for the municipal hospital is Arnold Hafso of Viking.

Basketball is the only major sport played in the United States which is purely of American origin.

Chrysler Strike Deadlock Said Hopeless Today

DETROIT, April 22 — (AP) — Federal mediators early today reported a "hopeless deadlock" in the Chrysler strike, now in its 88th day, and threatened to call off peace talks.

Arthur C. Viat, regional director of the federal mediation and conciliation service, made "the bleak report after a long bargaining session broke up at 1 a.m. EST.

It put a damper on latest hopes for a quick return to the job of 80,000 Chrysler workers whose strike already is the second longest in the automobile industry. Its cost is now estimated at $1,250,000,000.

The productive land of Spain comprises nearly 114,000,000 acres, about 90 per cent of the total area, but only 56,000,000 acres are under cultivation.

THREE YOUTHS HELP CREATE LAW PRECEDENT

BRANDON, Man., April 22. — (CP) — Three Winnipeg youths yesterday did their little bit to add to the list of precedents which build the law.

They were fined $3.75 apiece for throwing lighted fire crackers on verandahs.

"I've never had a case of this type before," the magistrate said, but I have heard of offenders opening front doors and tossing firecrackers into the parlor."

Coast Hospitals Get Federal Building Grants

OTTAWA, April 22.—(CP)— Hospitals in Vancouver, the General and St Paul's, have been awarded more than $330,000 from federal hospital construction grants, the health department announced yesterday.

The money will go to help meet the cost of enlarging their accommodation. At Vancouver General two wings will be added to provide space for the treatment of 370 chronically ill patients.

A three-storey addition is planned at St. Paul's hospital for completion in July. It will increase the hospital's bed capacity by 18.

NAME THE GREAT PERSON CONTEST
IT'S INTERESTING! IT'S EDUCATIONAL
A New Contest Every Week—10 Weekly Prizes—$10 Each

RULES

1. Throughout each weekly contest, every day, (Mon.-Sat.), SOMEWHERE in the classified section of the Bulletin, a small 4 or 5 line clue will be given.
2. In order to give all contestants (city and country) an equal opportunity to win one or more of these weekly contests, all contestants must have their answers delivered to the Bulletin or postmarked not later than midnight each Tuesday for the previous week's contest.
3. All answers received to this Contest by the Bulletin will be judged by the Contest Editor, and the first correct solution opened by the Contest Editor will be declared the winner, and announced the following Wednesday. See Rule No. 7.
4. No employee of the Bulletin or members of their families may enter this contest.
5. In the event of no correct answer being submitted in any particular week throughout the duration of the Contest, that week's prize money will be added to next week's prize.
6. If the contestants, when submitting answers, authorize the insertion of a 4-day want ad to appear in the classified columns of the Bulletin, and they are adjudged the winner, the prize money will be doubled.

—ONE WINNER ONLY EACH WEEK—

7. The winner of the previous week's contest will be announced in the personal column, also on the front page of the second section, and over CFRN's Evening News broadcast every Wednesday night.

HOW TO PLAY—
"Name the Great Person" CONTEST

Every day of the week, turn to the Classified pages of the Bulletin, and find that 4 or 5 line clue—Clip it—Save it—wait for tomorrow's Bulletin for the second clue. When you are sure that you have the proper solution, whether it's Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday night, mail it IMMEDIATELY to the Want Ad Contest Editor at the Bulletin. If you are the first person to submit the correct answer, whether it is Tuesday morning or Saturday morning, you will be declared the winner, and your cheque will go forward within 4 day or so.

All decisions of the Contest Editor will be final. No correspondence will be entered into, or interviews granted, in connection with this Contest.

OIL

2 Companies Make Development Deal

By C. V. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

Imperial Oil has entered into an agreement with the Anglo-Home-C and E group for the development of a 960-acre block three and a half miles north of the group's 21 wells which are at the south end of the Woodbend township.

The group and Imperial have each contributed 480 acres to form a land block one and a half miles wide east and west, and one mile deep north and south.

The well will be drilled in lsd 2-28-51, a mile north of the nearest producer which is Imperial Wooddbend No. 12.

The independent group will develop the property and recover all development costs from first production. Net profits will be divided half and half between Imperial and the group.

The group will share its costs and returns, 40 per cent Anglo, 40 per cent Home, 20 per cent C & E.

The amalgamated block includes all section 28, and the west half of section 27.

* * *

Hargal Leduc No. 4 has obtained a 2,000 foot rise of oil on D-2 test at 5,200 feet, assuring the company and associates a fourth producer; two D-2 and two D-3. Hargal owns 50 per cent. The balance is split between, Gran Leduc, New Pacalta, Freehold, Willrich.

Hargal group will now drill No. 5, half a mile north and quarter of a mile west. No. 5 is a south offset to one of the earliest wells in the field, Imperial No. 7, which found D-3 quite low.

Imperial Oil has moved into Manitoba. Two weeks ago the company announced it would renew a modest program in Saskatchewan where it has considerable freehold rights, but no crown. Imperial pulled out of Saskatchewan in 1945 following CCF oil policy announcements.

* * *

In Manitoba, and adjoining the Saskatchewan boundary, Imperial has taken up 600,000 acres. To the south, the California Standard Company under the name Brandon Eploration Company already has substanital holdings. Freehold leasing in Manitoba has been going on for some time.

The Devonian, source of the bulk of Alberta's oil, underlies the south half of Saskatchewan and the southwestern quarter of Manitoba. Thinning formations rise to the surface toward Hudson Bay. Much shallower drilling than in Alberta is to be epected.

However, drilling plans are still a long way off. Some geological and geophysical examination is expected this summer.

* * *

Redwater Leaseholds in conjunction with others will start a Devonian test in the very near future in untried territory about 35 miles northeast of the Stettler oil pool.

Redwater Leaseholds and Edmonton Leaseholds will together take about 50 per cent of the deal. Masters Oil and Gas of Toronto and Charlie Connieker will together take about 25 per cent. Globe Oil company will come in for a 10 to 15 per cent interest; individuals hold 10 per cent.

* * *

A 4,600 acre crown reservation 20 miles northeast of the Big Bravo Harrison wildcat is involved.

Location will be lsd 15-11-33-16, about two miles north of the town of Heisler.

The site is in completely new territory.

The nearest well to the east is Tower Killam about 20 miles removed. To the west Peterson brothers drilled a gas well. Twenty five miles to the northwest Viking wildcats were drilled some years ago.

* * *

Imperial Oil Ltd. clinked with its 18th success in the D3 at Woodbend Friday and also indicated its north outwell in the D3 in the Excelsior field north of Edmonton.

Imperial-Woodbend No. 22, completed in the D3 at [illegible] feet, [illegible] ed off and crew is now waiting to establish an initial potential.

Location of the new Woodbend well is lsd 9 of section 8-51-26-w4th. Nearest production is half a mile east at Woodbend No. 14.

During a test of the interval 3,850 to 3,875 feet, Imperial-Excelsior No. 3, a south offset to the discovery well, gave a natural gas flow of 310,000 cubic feet daily and sent mud to the surface in 10 minutes.

A test from 3,870 to 3,880 feet flowed gas at the rate of 161,000 cubic feet a day, with pipe recovery of 2,450 feet of oil. The well has been diamond cored an additional ten feet and another test is being run.

Meanwhile, Imperial Excelsior No. 2, the discovery's west offset, is drilling out cement from the hole before being placed on production, and Excelsior No. 6, a north offset to the Pacific group's producer, is still rigging up.

South African Segregation On Big Scale

CAPETOWN, South Africa, April 22—(AP)—A government-backed bill which would divide all of South Africa into separate group areas for each race of people will soon be introduced to the South African parliament.

Interior Minister Donges is to introduce the bill which would, in effect, place ownership and occupation of land under complete government control without recourse to parliament.

The bill, which would be expected to come into effect piecemeal in various sections of the country, would set up three main "group areas"—for whites, colored people (Indians, Malayans and mixed races), and natives (Negroes). These areas could then be subdivided into separate special groups for various categories.

There are some 2,400,000 whites in South Africa compared with 8,00,000 blacks and 235,500 Indians.

WIDE POWERS

The bill contains provisions for a measure of local self-government in each area, but the minister of interior, with the help of a seven-man land tenure advisory board, would have the power to issue or deny permits for occupancy or ownership of land.

The bill is one more step by the government of Prime Minister Malan to bring about absolute segregation of races in South Africa. Other bills already have been passed restricting marriage and even sexual relations between the various race groups.

Raft Picked Up

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, April 22.—(UP)—A Swedish vessel in the Baltic Sea has picked up a second liferaft of similar type to that carried by a missing American Navy Privateer believed shot down by the Russians with 10 men aboard, it was announced today.

WANTED—DRUG SALESMEN

In Western Canada

We require retail and wholesale men in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, for a summer distributing campaign on a new patent medicine product that will be backed by the most powerful advertising ever attempted in this area. This product has been advertised in Eastern Canada for the past year and has proven the steadiest and fastest seller of its kind in fifteen years. This will be the first of a number of items our company will handle, all of which will require sales representation. The men we want are probably working on their own, representing companies that sell drug or associated products and are looking for additional lines. Please reply fully. State your selling experience and the type of trade contracted, age and family position. All replies confidential. Box 368, Bulletin.
